CHEERY TONE TO WOODSTOCK

BOY'S LETTER FROM FRONT

Mrs. A. F. Winslow, of Woodstock, has received the following bright letter from her son, Randolph, dated May 13, direct from the firing line:

Dear Mother—I received your letter dated April 22. I think you must have sent them by the old steamer Aberdeen—as they were so long coming, but I was very glad to hear from you. Well, I must tell you of my first time under fire. We had just had quite a march and as I was tired I looked around for a good place to sleep and at last discovered an old shed which was just big enough for the horse and myself. It also had a hay nest in the corner in which there were two eggs, so I was sure I had discovered a good home. Well, I worked about an hour putting in straw and fixing it up—had just finished when I heard a loud crash in the yard. I also heard the order to "eagle up," which I lost no time in doing. The shells were now dropping fast and a fellow standing not far from me was hit by a flying piece. I stayed until one hit the roof of my humble home, then, believe me, I beat it and beat it fast. I was talking to Miles after and he said he had heard pleasant music in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre. As we have been under fire so much lately we must mind it much now. The Jack Johnsons when they go over sound like the six express going through Hardland without stopping.

I give my regards to my old friend Abe and tell him that I bought two bottles of champagne from a fellow for one franc and after partaking of some of it I could have taken a German trench myself.

I was glad to hear that he did so well at the concert, and if you have another when we come home Miles and I will sing a French duet. We have never enough for most anything now.

I am expecting your parcel most any day now and will be glad to get the tobacco. I should like to invite you over to my birthday party the 21st, but as the climate is very unhealthy I think you had better stay in the best little spot in the world, Canada.

AUSTRIAN COMMANDER DISGRACED

Gen. Moritz von Auffenberg. According to a London cable Gen. Moritz von Auffenberg, former Austro-Hungarian minister of war, and early in the war commander-in-chief of the Austro-Hungarian field force, has been arrested and is being treated as a "serious political criminal." Up to the victory of Kamorov, continues the report, he was the hero of his country, but shortly after this battle he was deprived of his command, owing, it is said, to the failure of an enveloping movement, but, nevertheless, on April 22, an Imperial decree was issued conferring on him the title of baron and granting in addition the title of von Kamorov. Four days later he was arrested and since that time has been a political prisoner.

A CHUM'S TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO THE LATE LEONARD BUNNELL

The following letter of condolence from a chum of the late Corporal A. L. Bunnell, who was killed at the battle of Langemarck, received by Mrs. Bunnell, mother of the deceased, is a touching tribute to the dead hero's worth, and shows the esteem in which he was held by his brave comrades. This letter must have been written by a man who has seen the cause of the thought to come to the mind of all who read it, that if the British Expeditionary force is composed of men of the calibre of the writer, that German military cannot fall in the near future to meet its fate:

28825, Pte. J. W. Edward,
Canadian Exp. Force,
Canadian O. C. Contingent,
14 Batt. (R. M. B.),
May 18, 1915.

Dear Mrs. Bunnell—
Doubtless you are now, you have heard of the untimely end of your noble son Leonard. As I have chummed and slept with him for a month or more, before his death, I thought you would like to hear of his last moments.

On Thursday, April 22nd, we were called out to drive the Germans, they having by using gas bombs, succeeded in breaking through the French lines on our left. It was while engaged in this task, in which I might say we were successful, that Leonard met his death. His demise was painless, he passing away instantly. He looked so calm and peaceful, with a sweet smile on his manly face. The boys gave him proper burial and we all miss him so much.

I knew him for three months or more, and a more soldierlike, honorable and a Christian boy I never met. He has left a gap I shall find very hard to fill. Rest assured that he is now safely in Jesus' bosom, a lad of his stamp.

Extending to you in your great grief, my heartfelt sympathy, and assuring you that you should be proud to have had your son fall fighting for such a noble cause, namely the cause of civilization.

Yours very sincerely,
J. W. EDWARD.

P. S.—I have a mother praying for my return who, from Leonard's description, is the very image of you, dear Mrs. Bunnell, both of you in my earnest prayer.

JACK.

LOCAL WAR NOTES

W. D. Ford, provincial animal husbandman, has enlisted in the second University Company for overseas service to act as reinforcements to the Princess Patricia's.

Gunner McDonald of the 28th Battery, Royal Artillery, who has been a deserter from that unit for about a month, was brought back to Fredericton, where he is now being held.

Edward Reading, whose name appeared in the casualty list this week as a deserter from the 1st Battalion, Canadian Infantry, who worked for some time in Sussex. He enlisted with the first contingent.

R. M. Hope, Chatham manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has volunteered for the war, and asks for an appointment as paymaster in the Canadian artillery. He proposes, however, to go in any capacity. Mrs. Hope will offer to go to the front as a nurse if her husband's services are accepted.

The Indians of York County are coming forth to serve their King and country. The fifth to sign the roll this week is Martin Paul, of the St. Marys Reserve. Other York county recruits are Chester D. Tapley of Fredericton, who has a brother, Irvine Tapley, with the 1st Regt. Band in Shorncliffe, and Wallace, of McGivney Junction, who will leave for Sussex on Saturday morning to join the 95th Battalion.

Recruits keep coming to Camp Sussex every day for the 55th. Thursday night thirty strapping fellows arrived from Campbellton, which makes about 115 men that have been added to the roster during the past week.

Mrs. Alice A. Sears of Centerville has received an interesting letter from her son, driver Leonard Sears, who is with the Divisional Ammunition Column, 2nd Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery.
