YOU CAN'T SMOKE AT BEULAH BUT THERE'S GOOD TIME THERE

St. John People Who Are Enjoying Summer Days in Hotel or Cottages on the Camp Grounds—The Discipline Tends to Comfort and Pleasure

Beulah Camp, Brown's Flats, Aug. 11.—That the Beulah camp grounds is one of the most entrancingly delightful spots on the St. John river needs but one visit to convince the most skeptical. The spacious grounds which might well be called a park, have in themselves and in their location much of natural charm and when there is added to this a large expenditure of money in improvements by means of artistic taste, you have an ideal spot for those in search of a quiet summer holiday.

The regulations governing the conduct of those who live within the gates of the camp colony to docket seem to be of a rigid and Puritanic. No smoking is allowed in the hotel or on the grounds. No scraps or fragments of paper are permitted. But these restrictions have a manifestly beneficial effect. It is needless to add that the guests here do not only those of refined taste who enjoy a well-ordered life even on a holiday, come here to enjoy the rigors of the camp life. They do not prevent the guests and cottagers from enjoying a good time, rather minister to it. The guests here do not only those of refined taste who enjoy a well-ordered life even on a holiday, come here to enjoy the rigors of the camp life. When bolted potatoes are strained take them at once to the open door or window and give them a vigorous shaking in the draught. This will make them quite white and mealy. If his Stamin Majesty was to call in all his lions, a lot of men would have to quit business.
