.How Wheat Celebrated.

New York, June 15.—In the seventh nning of the game played at Ebbets field April 30, Zack Wheat of the Brooklyns stepped to the plate for his fifty-eighth hundredth time at but in the big show, and celebrated by knocking a nome run. In 5,800 times at bat Wheat compiled a batting average of .302, cracking out 1,751 safe hits in 1,533 games.

The 1921 Baseball, Chicago, June 15—President William Veeck of the Chicago Cubs decided to satisfy the curiosity of himself and some of his players regarding the so-called lively ball now in use in the major leagues, so he cut open a 1920 and a 1921 ball, any those who witnessed the operation say the rubber in the 1921 ball was thicker than in the 1920 one. He also cut open two 1921 balls and found the corks in the centre of the rubber were not the same size.

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY FRANK MAYO

In a Great Romantic Picture

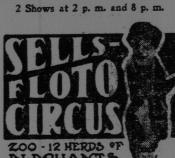

Colorado Made by Reeves Eason from the Famous Stage Success by AUGUSTUS THOMAS

"COLORADO" was a great stage play and it's even bigger as a picture. A vigorous, virile drama of the big out-doors, with a tremendous mine scene and a crackler of an ending that are going to give you thrills such as you've seldom had at a picture. Played by two-fisted Frank Mayo with a dash and a whirl that have wor him that true title—"hero of romance." You'll have one biggest hour of splendid entertainment.
