of Buffalo, is complying with the terms of the policy. Thurman died in action overseas. The facts in the case came out when Mrs. Mitchell sought to have Knipflow state guard in the armory here. She said Thurman was much attached to the horse and having near relatives who would suffer through his death, he decided to provide for the animal's care in case he did not return. The surplus above the cost of the horse's keep goes to Mrs. Mitchell. Knipflow is suffering from a sprained tendon but is recovering and is expected soon to become a part of Troop L's outfit where he is a great favorite. POLICE COURT CASES RESUMED. In the police court yesterday afternoon a case against Louis Hurrowitz was resumed, and Inspector Merryfield was recalled to give evidence as to the analysis of the jugs found at the residence. The accused said he had three boarders, but the fourth was a lunatic and he had kept him from mere charity. He said he had never sold any liquor and the liquor found was used for religious purposes. The case was postponed until Thursday afternoon. W. M. Ryan conducted the prosecution and E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defence. A case against Chester Myles, charged with stealing a ride on the train and also with the theft of $166 from a man on the train was also resumed. The accused said he had not paid any fare from Campbellton as he had the permission of the sleeping car conductor to stay in the car. The case was postponed. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defence. Frank Purcell and Mrs. Purcell of Milltown, have received from the government at Ottawa the 1915 star to which their son was entitled. The records of the Militia Council were expressed that their son did not live to wear the decoration. Private Francis Purcell was killed in the Battle of the Somme, September 7, 1916.
