KINETIC ENERGY
A body must contain energy—that's the fundamental point in existence.
A nerve and bone racking cold or cough does much to use up this force.
A good follow-up after la grippe, an excellent tonic, full of the vital requirements, will set you right.
A winner in this line is Cameron's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion.

ENJOYED THEMSELVES
The young people of Charlotte street United Baptist church were enjoyably entertained last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Mott, 13 Rodney street. Games and music afforded pleasure after which luncheon was served. This is the beginning of a series of such entertainments planned for throughout the winter.
GREAT CROPS FOR ALBERTA.
If the indications do not fail—and they have never yet failed—the agricultural season in Alberta this year will give bounteous crops. "Heavy snow-falls in the winter are always followed by good crops," said Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture of Calgary, who reached Toronto this week. "It is place on Wednesday in the Baptist parsonage at the latter place. Rev. W. J. Hurlow of Tracy Mills officiated.
