WINNING NEW SERIAL; OPERA HOUSE SCREEN

Wm. Duncan in "The Man of Might" Tomorrow—Wonderful Feats of Physical Prowess

With a manly hero, and enchanting heroine, the screen's most crafty villain and the screen's most sensational serial chapter drama, the new Vitaphone serial of thrills and romance, "The Man of Might," starts off tomorrow afternoon at the Opera House. William Duncan, the famous leading man of The Fighting Irish, Edith Johnson, Joe Ryan and others in prominent roles.

With William Duncan in the title role, "The Man of Might" is no titular exaggeration. His record as an athlete, his classic encounters with Sandow, the wrestler; his famous health farm—attended to engender anticipation in such feats of physical prowess as one does stunts are interwoven in a plot that is just replete with sensation, thrill, punch, action, and about every other definition of that which jolts men out of states of complacency and grips you hard and holds you firmly tensed until the last fade out on the screen. The scenes were taken through Lower California, Mexico, the Arizona desert, in the Sierra Nevada mountains—all natural scenery. Experts have proclaimed "The Man of Might" as the best serial ever made. See the first chapter tomorrow, Wednesday or Thursday and it is safe to say you will not miss those that follow.

EXTRAORDINARY BILL AT THE IMPERIAL TODAY

The Fox Corporation production, "Philly of a Great City," in which Gladys Brockwell is starred at the Imperial today and tomorrow is a daring attempt by the motion picture method at depicting conditions that exist in almost every community. The picture has created a great stir wherever shown. The usual miscellaneous single reels, the dancing and dancing, it is said, will be an improvement on the previous company and this means a good deal, as the company at the Lyric has created a record at St. John with eight months of continued popularity.

Opera Sale Opens Wednesday

So that the music loving public may have plenty of opportunity to book their seats for the opera season (Jefferson and the Imperial will put the whole six evening performances on sale Wednesday morning of this week starting at 10 o'clock old time. The opera engagement, will, of course, be on daylight time. The company has been creating a greater following than ever in Upper Canada, especially in Ottawa. THINK MAN THEY SAW WAS ONE WANTED FOR REXTON SHOOTING

Rexton, N. B., May 19—Thomas Whalen of East Branch, while driving to his home on Friday evening, reports he saw a man whom he took to be Robert Childs, fugitive murderer, behind the fence of his brother, James Childs. On the approach of the horse, he says, the man crouched down. On Saturday evening Charlie Thompson, a lad of ten years, while driving a cow near the Catholic cemetery, met a man answering to Childs' description—a tall, large man with short grey moustache, wearing a slouch hat and black overcoat. One of his boots had the sole tied on. He had in his hand a large revolver. He asked the lad if he had any money and if he would come to Rexton and get him a bottle of beer. The boy took fright and ran and in an excited manner told the story to his mother, who sent the report out. Sheriff Boudreau was notified and a large number of citizens armed with guns kept watch during the night. Chief of Police Rideout of Moncton and others arrived yesterday morning for a search.

subject to inspection. There was a general feeling, he said, that the law had been prepared in a way to favor those in the electrical business, as those who drew it were interested more or less in that business.

Mr. Thornton said that, in appointing a committee, he naturally had appointed men who knew something about electricity.

The section was passed.

Section four provided for emergency repairs without permit, on condition that should be secured within forty-eight hours.

Mr. Daniel remarked that, under the various sections, a man apparently could go ahead and do almost any repair work and take his chances, the penalty being effective only if one persisted in a violation after being notified.

In taking up section five, relating to inspection, Mr. Bullock said that it should be limited to new installations and was informed that it applied only to new work. The section was amended to make this clear, and so approved.

Section six, providing for preliminary and final inspections on new buildings or installations was passed.

Under section seven an inspection is required on each change in tenancy if the fixtures have been exchanged. The local liable for cost of repairs found necessary, and was recommended.

Seven and eight, re covering wiring without permit and number alone, re interference with wiring, were passed.

The powers of the city electrician and penalties for disregarding his instructions are defined in section ten, which was adopted.

A penalty of not more than $40 is provided for failure to install the apparatus or turning on current in violation of the law. This was passed.

Section twelve, law of inspection, was taken up and objection was made to the possibility of an inspector bringing in a rival contractor as his assistant. This was allowed to stand until tomorrow morning when consideration will be continued.

REPORT IS HAWKER SIGHTED OFF IRELAND

London, May 18—(Associated Press)—Claude Graham-White, aviator, although not unduly surprised that the Americans succeeded in crossing the most dangerous part of the trans-Atlantic flight, says he is thoroughly delighted with the great enterprise shown. He says that the flight is an object lesson to the British authorities, because so far as the British machines are concerned, the flight means life or death as there is no chain of destroyers to pick them up if they meet with an accident.

St. John's, Nfld., May 18—Mrs. Hawker, wife of Harry Hawker, Australian aviator, said: "Our boys have had no help at all. Even the weather reports are unsatisfactory. Still I believe we will be first."

St. John's, Nfld., May 19—No word from G. Hawker had been received here up to 7:30 a. m. today.

London, May 19—The air ministry announced a little after 5 o'clock that it had no confirmation of the report that Hawker was up off Ireland at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

CREW OF N. C. 3 REPORTED SAVED

Washington, May 19—Although it was said it was possible London might get the first news, the navy department early today had not been informed as to the unofficially reported rescue of the crew of the seaplane N. C. 3, as told in a news despatch from London. It was said, however, that interrupted cable service between the Azores and the United States might account for a report of the rescue reaching London before it was received here.

No news from the N. C. 3, missing since early Saturday morning, when Commander Towers reported the plane then was off her course about 300 miles from her destination, had been received at the navy department. As more than fifty hours had passed since this message was picked up and owing to bad weather and sea conditions that would have made it very difficult for the craft to live on the ocean surface even if it had escaped a successful landing, which is not doubted here, uneasiness of naval officials for the safety of the mammoth flying boat and five members of her crew had increased over-night.

The more than a score of naval vessels which have been sweeping the sea since short time after the N. C. 3 became lost kept up their search throughout the night. High seas and foggy weather around the Azores have handicapped the patrol work and also have increased the doubt as to the ability of the craft to remain afloat. Wrecking of the N. C. 3 by the wind and waves was pointed to show the difficulties the flyers faced. Her crew were rescued. Hope of the ultimate rescue of Commander Towers and his crew has not been abandoned, however, and increased efforts to find them were begun today.

In the meantime the N. C. 4, the only one of the three planes that left Trepassey Bay Friday afternoon on the first leg of the overseas trip to complete the voyage, was weather bound at Horta, Portugal, for the second day of the flight. The machine itself was reported to be in excellent condition to resume the journey, and the confidence of its crew has not been shaken by the misfortunes of their fellow flyers.

Horta, Island of Fayal, May 18—(By the Associated Press)—The N. C. 4 averaged ninety miles an hour to Horta, and according to Lieut.-Commander Reade, made the flight in thirteen hours and eighteen minutes.

Washington, May 19—Instructions to use the seaplane N. C. 4 at Horta to search for the missing seaplanes N. C. 3 and her crew have been sent Rear-Admiral Jackson at Ponta Del Guia by Rear-Admiral Plunkett, commanding the destroyer force, according to a message received today at the navy department. All destroyers west of Ponta Del Guia have been placed at Admiral Jackson's disposal to search for the missing plane.

Rome, May 19—One of ten British airplanes flying from Marseilles for Egypt, was wrecked on Saturday when the machine landed at an airfield near here. A lieutenant was killed and four other military occupants were injured, one of whom died later.

THE ROTARY CLUB

Nowlan of Montreal were welcomed at the Rotary Club luncheon at Bond's today. F. H. Quirt presided. Capt. E. M. Case, who is an expert, gave a most interesting talk on care of the feet. Captain Case was engaged in treating the feet of soldiers in Victoria, B. C., for a considerable time. The club decided to raise $1,500 toward the expense of the national conference on moral education in the schools in relation to Canadian citizenship. The convention will be held in Winnipeg Aug. 25, 26, 27. The club accepted an invitation from Rotarian F. A. Dykeman to have a picnic at his summer home at Ononette.

The report that an employee of the Provincial Chemical Fertilizer Company in East St. John, had shot himself, reaching the city just as The Times was going to press. Dr. F. C. Keane, coroner, had been notified and was preparing to leave for the scene of the tragedy to investigate. There were no details.

A later report says the man's name is Carl Pedersen.

IN WALL STREET

New York, May 19—Opening of the special session of congress was made the occasion of another bullish demonstration in stocks at the opening of today's trading. Ralls reflected this factor more than any other direction, lower grades and standard issues making further advances of one to three and a half points in the first half hour. Shipments also materially enhanced last week's gains, especially Marine companies, American International and Pacific Mail, which rose one to three points. Numerous equipments and specialties were at highest levels of the day, and steel, oil and motors also recorded moderate advances.

DAUGHTER ALWAYS TIRED

Maher Says Vinol Built Her Up and Completely Restored Her Health.

Long Island City, N. Y.—"My daughter is a milliner and she got into a rundown condition, pale and had no appetite. After other medicines failed to help her, Vinol gave her a new appetite, built her up and completely restored her health."—Mrs. H. Ott.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this case is because it has a special action on liver, peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, rundown system, and create strength.
