

adopted, we would not recommend its continuance for the present.

5th. As the paint on the outside woodwork of the manse had become very delapidated, we have had it renewed. We have also found it necessary to expend a considerable sum on the boulevards fronting on Queen's Avenue, in order to have it in keeping with the neighbourhood, which expenditure we hope will meet with your approbation.

6th. The thanks of the congregation are due to the Ladies' Aid Society for the generous gift of $100, the full amount required to make the alterations in the pews in the gallery—alterations which have been under the consideration of the Board for years.

7th. The Managers, in conclusion, would desire to acknowledge the goodness of God to us during the year that is past, and that He has enabled our esteemed Pastor to overcome the large amount of work devolving upon him. We would also draw your attention to the efficient labours of the members of the Choir in promoting the proper conduct of the service of praise.

8th. The six Managers, whose term of office now expires, are John Ferguson, Joseph Atkinson, Alex. Purdom, John Jones, John G. McIntosh and John Ross, who are eligible for re-election.

ALEX. DAVIDSON,
Secretary.
