A PANACEA.

Last fall an Englishman of letters was staying, as the guest of an elderly lady, at a country house in Western Massachusetts. While they were driving one afternoon they had the misfortune to meet the omnipresent automobile at a sharp turn of the road. The horses, being spirited, shied, dashing the carriage against a tree and throwing its occupants out into the road. The Englishman picked himself up uninjured, but was horrified to see her aged hostess lying on the ground unconscious. Running to a nearby farmhouse, she knocked for some time before she finally succeeded in bringing a sunbonneted woman to the door. "A lady has been hurt—thrown from a carriage. She is lying down there in the road. Can you give me some whiskey for her?" cried the visitor in breathless anxiety. "Well, no, we don't never keep no whiskey," said the native-born after some deliberation. "Would the lady like a piece of pie?"—August Lippincott's Magazine.

SENSATIONAL ABDUCTION OF WEALTHY WOMAN.

(Special cable to the Star.)
BUDAPEST, July 25.—A sensational abduction took place one night this week just outside one of the principal theatres here. The performance had just concluded, when four masked men pushed their way through the crowd, and seizing a young lady who was waiting for her friends, bore her to a motor car which was drawn up in front of the building. Then the motor car was whirled away. When the young lady's friends had recovered from their stupefaction caused by the very audacity of the deed they informed the local police that she was Miss Ida Cernovitch, the daughter of a wealthy landowner in the neighborhood of Agram. Her family having been at feud with another branch of the house for many years it is supposed that the motive of this up-to-date motor car abduction is one of revenge upon the father, who was a successful litigant in a recent suit against the other side of the family, the money in dispute amounting to $225,000.
