TALLE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.-The body of President McKinley tonight lies in the east room of the White House. where for more than four years he lived as the chief magistrate of the great American republic. Upstairs in the apartments occupied by the family of the late President, his widow mourns among the saddest of memories.

It was with simple ceremony and a fitting silence that the body of the late President, which twice had seen the triumphal pageant of his inauguration, was borne up Pennsylvania avenue to the White House, where it was laid upon the bier in the great east room, in which he had stood so often in the pride of his manhood to receive the greetings of the common people whom he loved better than himself. It was fitting that such ceremony as there was should be severely military in character, in recognition of the facthat the President was the commander-in-chief of the United States army and navy.

The streets about the station wer filled with mounted troops, and the sta-tion itself was occupied by soldiers and sailors in uniform. On the broad stretch of avenue that led to the White House the people strained and crowded in a vast multitude against the repes that marked out the line of procession. The train bearing the President's remains arrived in the Pennsylvania railway station at 8.42 p. m. As the on swept from 6th street staprocession swept from 6th street sta-tion into Pennsylvania avenue a deeply impressive sight was presented. The historic thoroughfare was hung in black. It was about half-past nine when the head of the procession reached the White House grounds and turned into the driveway.

The carriages containing Mrs. Kinley, Dr. Rixey and Abner McKinley had preceded the funeral cortege to the White House by some little time. With her right arm resting heavily and wearily upon the shoulde of her dead husband's brother and supported on the other side by Dr. supported on the outer state Rixey, she walked slowly along the houe. She stone flagging into the houe. soon retired. Dr. Rixey and Mr. Cortelyou later said that she stood the journey very well indeed. Among those who knew her best and were with her at Buffalo it is doubted whether yet she fully realizes the cal-amity that has befallen her, and it is with some apprehension that they look forward to the first days alone in Can-

THE FUNERAL TRAIN. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Through living lane of bare-headed people stretching from Buffalo up over the Alleghenies, down into the broad val-leys of the Susquehanna and on to the marble city on the banks of the ing Potomac, the nation's martyred President today made his last journey to the seat of the government over which he presided for four and half years.

The whole country seemed to have drained its population to the sides of the track over which the funeral train passed. Work was suspended in field, workshop, mine and factory. The schools were dismissed, and everywhere appeared the trappings and where appeared the trappings

Mrs. McKinley stood the trip bravely. In the morning, soon after leaving Buffalo, she pleaded so earnestly to be allowed to go into the car where her dear one lay that reluctant assent was given, and she spent half an hour beside the coffin. All the way the train was preceded about 15 minutes by a pilot engine sent ahead to test the bridges and switches and prevent the possibility of accident to the precious burden it carried. CZOLGOSZ INDICTED. BUFFALO; Sept. 16.—Leon F. Czolgosz, alias Fred Nieman, was indicted this attenoor by the county court grand jury for the crime of murder in the first degree in fatally shooting President McKinley.

When arragned before Judge Edward K. Emery, in the county court at 5.30 o'clock, the prisoner stubbornly refused to answer questions as to whether he had counsel or wanted counsel.

Judge Emery assigned as his counsel Hon. Lorain L. Lewis and Hon. Robert C. Titus of this city, former supreme court justices, whose names had been suggested by the Eric county bar association.

This over, the judge directed the officers to notify the attorneys he had just named and remove the prisoner.

to notify the attorneys he had just named and remove the prisoner.

Czolgosz was handcuffed to the detectives who started out of the court with him. The crewds surged after him, but found the exit barred by four strong policemen. Outside the court room door, the prisoner was surrounded by 12 policemen, with club drawn, and under command of Captain Michael Regan, Jailer Geo. Mitchell and several deputy sheriffs. The prisoner was hurried down stairs and into the basement, whence he was taken through the tunnel to the jail across Delaware avenue. Whether he was left there for the night or taken elsewhere, the police refuse to say.

District Attorney Penny stated as he left the court, that Justices Lewis and Titus would be notified and given an opportunity to talk with the prisoner, and that he hoped to arraign Czolgosz tomorrow morning to take his pleas to the indictment.

(New York Press.) It is the easiest thing in the world to obtain lucrative employment in New York. Who said "a sucker is born every minute?" He was a poor statistician. Ten suckers are born every ninute, and if surface indications mean anything, most of them come to New York. The number of "business oppor-tunities" offered to young men is convertisements. "Five hundred dollars secures salary and interest in established business; $3,000 yearly profit guaranteed." This gentleman could not afford to advertise unless he caught a few suckers to foot the bills. "Active partner with $1,500; $200 weekly guaranteed; experience unnecessary." Come on sucker! "Position open for young man, paying $1,200 yearly; must invest $2,000." The woods are full of these philanthropists, bailing suckers.
