CANADIAN DECISION HELPS RUM RUNNING

Night Dangers Eliminated on Dominion Side.

Buffalo, Feb. 15.—The recent Canadian court decision that it was legal to transport liquor to the border for export purposes has changed the whole business of rum running across the Niagara River.

All the night dangers are eliminated.
The smugglers now load their fast motor boats on the Canadian shore under the supervision of Canadian customs officials, and start off to the American side, where they land long before the American customs officers.

The Americans have redoubled their vigilance, but the river bank presenting a long stretch of possible landings and so far there has not been enough men here to check the rush of liquor Vigilance has been redoubled, however, on the ferry and on the bridge where the cargoes to their proper functions and automobiles are being searched very thoroughly.

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE GAMES PLAYED YESTERDAY

Canadiens and Ottawa Played Twenty Minutes Overtime to Draw, Score 6 to 6—St. Patricks of Toronto Defeated Hamilton 6 to 4.

Montreal, Feb. 15.—Making a wonderful comeback after they had been completely outplayed in the first two periods, Canadiens at Mount Royal Arena tonight drew up to Ottawa Senators and went through overtime periods to the score six to six. In anticipation of a more or less terrific conflict between the veteran rival teams of the National Hockey League, the largest crowd that has assembled in the Arena this winter turned out to the match.

If they came to see rough play they were disappointed for although penalties were frequent, the match except in the final overtime period when both teams tried, was clean and snappy.

A noticeable feature of the game was that although Canadiens made many changes in their line-up and used all their sub with the exception of Bonard, the Senators managed with only one change. That was in the overtime period when Gerard was hit in the eye and had to be replaced by "King" Clancy.

The stars of the game for Ottawa were Gerard, George Bonard and Lashbor. Bonard worked well for Canadiens. Vezina and Benedict both acquitted themselves respectably in goal.

The lineup for the teams was as follows:

Ottawa	Goal.	Canadiens
Benedict	Goal.	Vezina
Gerard	Defense.	Defense.
G. Bonard	Center.	Couture
Bel	Center.	S. Claghorn
Brook	Wings.	Malone
Cy. Denany	Substitutes.	Progers

Dempsey Is Open For Engagement

Champion Heavyweight Fighter is Looking for Strong Opponent and Plenty of Money.

New York, Feb. 15.—"Open for engagement" is the position of heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey, who arrived here today looking for a strong opponent in a title bout next summer. Dempsey is ready to fight any heavyweight or light heavy either here or abroad who will prove a financial drawing card, according to the statement of both the champion and his manager, Jack Kearns.

Promoters are not rushing to sign up the champion at attractive figures, however, and Manager Kearns said he may have to go abroad or in va-deville to meet the overhead charges incident to holding a championship title.

Dempsey, who spent part of the day automobileing, despite the snow storm, expects to remain in the east for at least a month. During his stay here he may do a little theatrical work, while Kearns is endeavoring to discover a suitable opponent for a mid-summer fight.

If a championship bout is staged in this country, Dempsey's opponent will probably be selected from among Tom Gibbons, Harry Wills, Harry Grebb and Jess Willard. If the champion is forced to look abroad for a match, such a contest would be staged in or near London during the summer season, and Georges Carpentier or Bombardier Wells would oppose the champion. Tom Rickard may be asked to stage such a bout if a match falls here. Under no circumstances, said Kearns, would Dempsey fight in France.

Ward Returned Unsigned Contract

Fort Smith, Ark., Feb. 15.—Aaron Ward, New York's second baseman, said today he had returned his second unsigned contract for the 1933 season.
"They offered me $6,000 this time," he said, discussing the second document he has received. "I want $10, 000 a year, and I'll sign no contract until I get it."

Gene Tunney Is After Carpenter

Claimant of Light Heavyweight Championship of America Wants to Fight Frenchman.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—Another appoint who wishes to fight Georges Carpenter has developed in Gene Tunney, claimant of the light heavyweight championship of America, who disposed of Whitely Wenzel, of Pittsburg, in four rounds here last night. Tunney said he was anxious to fight the Frenchman.

"Doc" Bagley, manager of Tunney, said he had sent a dozen cables to Carpenter, asking him to come to Philadelphia, and Carpenter's manager, with out getting a reply.

"Tex" Rickard has been trying for some time to get Carpenter to come to the match, too," Bagley said. "As far as we can find out, Carpenter wants Tom Gibbons, Harry Grebb and Tunney to fight an elimination tourney. Then he will fight the winner."

Tunney's manager said that if they couldn't get Carpenter to come to the United States they would go to France or arrange for a fight in any part of the world.
