

s of it, and also opposed by the Ministry in Britain for the promotion of friends. The circular institutions in Ireland. Read the speeches of Sir James nsideration, will beham and Sir Robert Peel, explanatory of their designs, and knowledge among say if the exclusive party here can have much prospect of ecclesiastical encroachment in their opposition to the amendment of the Charter of your Committee was College at Toronto. No! if we are only true to our—that such a circular—if we will only consent to exert ourselves with half the ply of money. Alas! that our opponents display—the day is ours. Church in the Province, has, no doubt, been often observed how much weight the e purpose. The dominant party can bring to bear on any particular measure objects contemplated affects their interests, and how puny are the efforts of e, at their meetings who are as deeply interested on the other side. The ling Secretary to set of this simply is, that on the one hand there is thorough iance with the spiritualization, and a sinking of all minor differences for the py of the Report accomplishment of one great object; while, on the other side, ommittee have experienced an almost total want of organization, and the indul n done. They were of a miserable jealousy, which acts as an extinguisher ns being given on all active, general, or concentrated exertion. If our domination were true to its principles, and if our Union was direct duties on all operation, we flatter ourselves that we could bring an s College at Toronto of force into the field, on any necessary occasion, of copies of the Peel no denomination need be ashamed.

forwarded to the next subject, in the order of the Resolutions of last the Legislative Council, to which it is necessary for your Committee to ad- or presentation it is, the change of the place of meeting from Simcoe to om these gentle place. The tenth Resolution apparently made it impera- ve Houses.

upon your Committee to arrange for the meeting being nment of the Charter at Simcoe; but in the course of the year circumstances ariament, your e occurred, in connexion with the church in that place, eir consideration, in the opinion of those most conversant with the details, ediate forward it highly inexpedient that the meeting should be held he measure had. The reasons for the change will be stated verbally, and easure is one of it be for the Union to say whether the Committee have before the public with prudence or have been culpable in so palpably which it was cancelling from their instructions.

ould recommend no other subject relates to the Resolution for peti- he Union itself, the Parliament for the establishment of a register of births unt crisis in the months. Such a Petition was prepared and forwarded, and ore the people, moved at an early period of the Session, but without any eeds in the liberal result further than favorable notices in the organs of ected from the great Methodist and Baptist denominations. It will be for the exertions on the to determine whether they will renew their application. red, and their measure is very much wanted, and would not involve e carried into a difficulty in being brought into operation.

ounded or matured Committee have now rendered their account of the age us in the e committed to them for the past year. None can be more luences, was obvious than they are of the inefficient manner in which rom proving p duties have been fulfilled. This inefficiency, however, kely to prove e entirely proceeded from neglect. They have endea- ich have lately in some instances to work out the views of the Union