LETTER
COPYING
BOOK.

Copies Letters
WITHOUT ANY
Water, Press, or Brush

And your letter does not show it has been copied, as it leaves the letter clean and distinct. These are the reasons why this book is used in preference to the Iron Press.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING.
Write your letter with my ink the same as with any common ink. When finished, let your letter lay for two or three minutes. To copy, lay your letter on the heavy pasteboard, the written side up.
Then take a clean blotter and touch the writing LIGHTLY, then turn a leaf of the book FIRMLY over the letter to be copied, then rub rather HARD with fingers of the left hand, holding on tight with the right fingers, and you have a fine copy.

Place the blotting pad between the copy just taken and the next leaf to keep it from offsetting.

Each page of writing can be copied as written. After copying, thoroughly blot letter with heavy blotter. NEVER blot letter or writing until ready to copy.
