

Resolved, as the opinion of this committee, That provision ought to be made for liquidating and ascertaining the losses sustained by citizens of the United States from the operation of particular regulations of any country, contravening the law of nations, and that such losses be reimbursed in the first instance, out of the additional duties on the manufactures, productions and vessels of the nation establishing such unlawful regulations.

R E S O L U T I O N S

Laid before the House of Representatives of the United States, on Thursday the 27th of March, 1794, by Mr. Dayton.

RESOLVED, That provision ought to be made by law, for the sequestration of all the debts due from the citizens of the United States to the subjects of the king of Great Britain.

Resolved, That provision ought, in like manner, to be made for securing the payment of all such debts into the treasury of the United States, there to be held as a pledge for the indemnification of such of the citizens of the said States, as shall have suffered from the ships of war, privateers, or from any person, or description of persons, acting under the commission or authority of the British king, in contravention of the laws of nations, and in violation of the rights of neutrality.
