Hard workers

Adam's Rib North Star team is sure it won't be Phalen

The Mississauga Adam's Rib North Stars won't have much to worry about as long as Steve Phalen is around.

Phalen scored five goals to lead the North Stars to two victories in MTHL Minor Midget play last week.

Phalen supplied the only goal in a 1-0 victory over Walker Advertising. Dave Phillips earned the shutout.

Phalen scored four times to pace the North Stars to a 6-1 victory over Weston. Randy Brockie and John Hamlin scored

Dataline Midget Reps enjoy busy Christmas

The Christmas season was hardly a holiday for the Mississauga Dataline Reps. The Midget AA Reps played three games in as many days last week and emerged with five of a possible six points in MTHL play.

Led by Randy Cunneynorth's three goals, the Reps doubled St. Michael's 6-3. Dave Newsom, Greg Gilbert and Bob Poirier scored the other goals.

Poirier, Newsom and Gilbert had two assists each.

Kurt Schmidt scored three goals, his last with eight seconds left in the game, to lead the Reps to a 7-7 tie with the Toronto Nationals.

Poirier added two goals while Owen Ivey and Dennis Holley had one apiece. Gilbert had four assists and Newsom three.

Gilbert, Cunneynorth and Holley scored two goals each as the Reps doubled Don Mills 6-3.

Soviets put on a great late show vous," he said. "I was scared stiff. I think we all were."

While Bootland's gaffe may have come at an inopportune time, it was doubtful that the Arrows could have stayed within two or three goals much longer. While the Soviets were still skating at full speed in the third period, the Arrows could barely drag themselves down the ice.

Playing without their top line, due to the illness of Wayne Ormson, the Arrows knew that a collapse was inevitable.

The game was far from the classic non-playful games usually seen in international hockey. Both sides delighted in taking cheap shots.

Arrow John Falcon was knocked senseless when Vladimir Porokofyev viciously elbowed him in the head. Arrows Steve Bronzowski and Dave Wilson took more than their share of cheap shots as well.

But hitting was the key to the Arrows' brief success and it was when they stopped hitting that the Russians began to dominate.

Traktor led 2-1 after the first period and took a 5-2 lead late in the second. Cal Herd, who was the Arrows top offensive threat with a goal and two assists, scored to bring the Arrows within two goals.

But seven seconds later Anatoly Yegorkin scored his second of three goals to put the Russians ahead 6-3. After that the fans were treated to a display of Traktor's multiple hockey skills as they outscored the Arrows 5-1 and outshot them 21-14 over the last 20 minutes. The Soviets had a 53-31 shot advantage in the game.

Archie Chase was named the most valuable player on the Arrows as a result of his two goals. Herd and Paul Richard got the others.

The Arrows return to league action Saturday night in an important game against the Whitby Ironquios at 8:00 at Port Credit. The Arrows must win all remaining games with Whitby to keep their playoff hopes alive.

Wings, Flyers run away with Paperweight race

The Texaco Red Wings and Brian Phillips Flyers ended 1977 the same way they started it in Huron Hockey Association Paperweight play New Year's Eve.

The Red Wings ran their Blue Division leading record to 5-0-2 with a 4-1 victory over the Legion 82 Canucks. The Flyers, leading the Red Division with a 6-0-1 record, dumped the A&A Radiator as the Claremont Insurance Blues blanked the Marlin Motion Picture Penguins 2-0.

Michael Boone scored twice to pace the D. W. Ferguson Bruins to a 4-0 victory over the Mississauga Radiator Leafs. Kevin Zollner and Patrick McMullen got the other goals while Jason Saul earned the shutout.

Chris Gilbert scored two goals while Jason Claremont recorded a shutout

Round-up

Want to be a Bear?

The Mississauga Bears, who travelled to Germany last year and may host a German team this summer, will begin indoor training for the 1978 soccer season this week.

The Bears, who compete in the National Soccer League's Junior B division, will train on Sunday, Jan. 8 from 8 to 11 a.m. at Erindale College's gymnasium.

Coach Rudi Koerber is looking for players born in 1959 to 1961.

For further information call Koerber at 822-6522.

Raiders are stingy

Meadowvale Raiders continued to shut out their MTHL Minor Bantam B opponents last week.

The Raiders blanked Warren Park 2-0 with Tim Henry and Jim Baxter handling the scoring.

Chris Enevior was credited with the shutout. Mark Moses registered his fifth shutout in 14 games as Raiders defeated York Toros 7-0.

Indoor golf, anyone?

The Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department is offering a five-week instructional golf session. Lessons are to be taught by a Canadian Professional Golf Association member at a cost of $22 per person. Classes are one hour per week.

The lessons will be held Monday through Thursday evenings in different locations or on Sunday afternoon. Those interested can call 279-7600 for more information.

I'M A TV STAR

For those of you who may have McLean Hunter Cable TV, Mississauga bowler Terry Noon and I will be having a television program starting late January called Etobicoke Bowling. Many youngsters living in the Mississauga area will probably be on the program if they bowl in this area. So, some night if you're looking for something to watch, tune us in. It promises to be an exciting show as we'll have YBC match play events on the show. I'll advise you in the near future as to the dates and times.

VILLAGE MONDAY MAJORS
as submitted by Ron Morris

Scores are still hot and heavy from this house. Most recent news has Lorne Shook with a sizzling 445. Lorne threw 11 strikes in succession only to be thwarted for the perfect game honor by a "chop-out". Tough luck Lorne. Gets hard on the nerves at times, doesn't it? Lorne had 981 that night with games of 275, 445, 261. Mattioli had games of 274, 292 and 286 for an 852. Other high singles went to Ted Woodhouse (339), Mel Leeman (340), Don Rank (337), Aldo Nasato (327) and John Snell (313). Patrick Hogan still maintains high average with an amazing 281. Mike Fillipuzzi with "only" a 271 average holds on to second spot. Good luck to both of you; it should prove interesting by year end. Personally I'd like to see you both keep these averages. It's just tremendous bowling.
