

Sam Lima and chef Pasquale

THE TIMES

It's open Casa

Owner Sam Lima needs no introduction to the horseracing crowd and soon his new restaurant, Casa Lima, will be as well-known.

Casa Lima, on Carlingview Drive near the airport, features Italian food, of course. Pasquale Carpino, the singing chef of television fame, prepares the finest in Italian delicacies.

His specialties include Rigatoni Alla Vodka and Veal Milanese.

Don't be surprised if Pasquale escapes the kitchen to entertain guests with one of his songs.

You don't have to blow the grocery money for a meal as Casa Lima, either. One of pasquale's meals can be enjoyed for $25 a couple, including wine.

Casa Lima features a choice of three rooms with three distinct atmospheres.

The Alitalia Room is elegant while the Garden Room exudes a warm, casual atmosphere. The Fire and Desire Lounge has a sit-down bar and serves light meals and snacks.

Casa Lima is open every day. Call 675-3666 for reservations.

Motorcycles on parade

Over 50,000 spectators are expected to attend the second annual International World of Motorcycles (Jan. 5 to 7 at the International Centre in Malton).

Canada's largest public and trade show will feature manufacturer, dealer and distributor participation and service representation and custom accessories.

The show will feature the introduction of the new models, a custom motorcycle display with cafe racers, street customs, show bikes and full dress touring machines, guest exhibitor displays and sports celebrities.
