October 10, 1914.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King,
The Roxborough,
Ottawa, Canada.

My dear King:-

I reciprocate from the bottom of my heart the kind words in your letter of October 3rd. It will be a pleasure to confer with you at any time, and any experience or judgment that I may have of the least value to you will be at your service. I am afraid in return I shall sometimes want to trouble you in my problems where your broad vision and your clear, penetrating judgment will be most helpful.

The Century Year Book, addressed to you at Toronto, was returned today by the Canada Customs. I am trying again at your Ottawa address. Will you let me know which address I should count upon ordinarily, in sending mail to you?

With warmest regards from Mrs. Reynolds, I am

Very truly yours,

James Bronson Reynolds
