Chief.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th inst. and in reply to inform you that I never authorized the informant to make any statement, what ever respecting the distribution of what took place at the last award; and you are altogether under a misapprehension when you allege that I did so.

I am as it is to be expected any use you please of this letter of course.

Yours, Sir,

Your obedient servant.

Chief

John Tuischa
