Dear Miss Grahams

A desire to express in very warm terms my appreciation of your letter of October 31st and its request is responsible for my failure to acknowledge its receipt up to this last hour of the old year. As a matter of fact I was most anxious to send you a photograph of my mother for use in the Christmas number of the Canadian Home Journal and had your letter not been placed with a number of others to which I wished to give more than a formal acknowledgment, your request would have been immediately fulfilled. Though it is now too late to incorporate my mother's picture in the Christmas number of the Home Journal, it may be that some other number will afford you that opportunity so I am sending you to-day a copy of the painting by J. W. L. Forster, which
