MISS HILL,
Organist of the Saint Patrick's Church in the city.
BEGGS to intimate to her friends and the public, that she is prepared to receive Pupils on the PIANO, HARP, GUITAR,
THOROUGH BASS,
And Italian and English Singing.

As it is the intention of Miss Hill to become a permanent resident in Quebec, those pupils entrusted to her will be afforded an opportunity of being thoroughly instructed in either or all of the above branches; and from having received instruction under the first masters in the profession, she feels confident in being able to give entire satisfaction.—Terms known by application at her residence; No. 14, Saint George's Street, Grand Battery.

NOTICE.
THE business heretofore carried on by GEORGE HOWARD will from the 1st May, be continued by the Subscribers, under the firm of GEORGE HOWARD & SON, Shoeing-smiths and Farriers, St. Paul Street, Quebec,
1st May.

THE subscribers will commence in their new establishment as well as the old in a few days, where they will have on hand all sorts of ready-made Implements of Husbandry, such as Forks, Hoes, Axes, Spades, Ploughs, Harrows, &c., &c. Horses shod in the best of styles—Good Stabling for Sick Horses. They flatter themselves that they shall be able to give every satisfaction; and as they wish to do business on as short credit as possible, all those who have been in the habit of putting off payment from time to time, will have to pay cash on the spot,—as times and prices will not allow more than three months credit.

PROUDLEY'S
SAINT LAWRENCE HOTEL,
Sans-le-Fort Street, Lower Town.

THE Subscriber begs respectfully to return thanks to his friends and the public for past favors, and to assure them that no care or exertions on his part shall be spared to render this establishment deserving of the decided preference which has hitherto been given to it.
His house has just undergone many improvements and additions, and now combines very superior advantages for the accommodation and comfort of visitors. The situation is convenient and healthy, commanding a view of the river and shipping of the port, unsurpassed in Quebec.
The table of this hotel will always be provided with the best the market affords; and the wines and liquors will be found of the choicest qualities.

CALEDONIA SPRINGS.
THE favorable opinion I formerly entertained of the waters of the Caledonia Springs is MORE THAN CONFIRMED, as well from the benefits I personally derived from their use, as from what I observed of their effects on others. The water should be drank in moderate quantities before breakfast, and persevered in for some weeks at least.

DR. BRANDETH requests a perusal of the following article—
LIFE AND DEATH,
Every thing has two distinct principles to its nature; one
THE PRINCIPLE OF LIFE
THE OTHER
THE PRINCIPLE OF DEATH.
So long as the principle of Life predominates, Health is enjoyed. When the principle of Death Sickness takes place. How is this accounted for?
By the principle of Death, I mean the principle of decomposition or decay, which is each hour progressing on in the human frame from the hour of birth to that of our final exit. While the natural outlets—pores—the bowels—and all other directories of the body, discharge these decayed particles as fast as they are generated, we are in a state of health; we are free from the presence of the disease.
When, from breathing an impure atmosphere, or living in a vicinity of swamps, or when we are in the constant habit of coming in contact with bad smell—effluvia arising from obnoxious accumulations of animal or vegetable bodies in a state of putridity, being infected from a living body under the influence of disease in a malignant state; or sedentary occupations; or, in short, any cause which promotes decomposition faster than the stomach and bowels can —the other excretories can remove, naturally; we are then in a state of disease. And should the cause which produces this state of the body remain, and nothing be done to drive the accumulated and accumulating impurities out of the body, the principle of death or decomposition, will become rampant, and the last glimmering of life depart from the ensoulmated clay.

How then, shall we counteract these death developing influences? How?
PURGE!—Yes—I say Purge! To make it that word shall yet be understood, if the head or brain can accomplish so mighty an explosion. Yes, purged we are, the pain in the head, the back, the bowels, the foot, the stomach, the side, the throat. Does it arise from internal or external cause,—I still say purge!—or know this self-evident truth, that pain cannot exist, save by the presence of some impurity—some deposit of decomposed particles upon the organ or part where the pain is seated. And purging discharges this impurity by the bowels and continuing the practice daily will cure every complication of disease; and will prevent any one from being seriously indisposed, or even when in constant contact with the most mallignant fevers which cannot by possibility seriously affect the body, if we are continually careful to preserve it in a pure state, by frequent and effectual purgations. Hippocrates says,—Purgation expels what must be expelled, and patients find relief; if on the contrary, they are tormented by purgation, it is a proof there are yet matters which must be expelled.

The subscriber has this has resided in every variety of climate, and by always purging on the first appearance of sickness, has enjoyed for the last ten years, uninterrupted health. For we may call such the state of such who are never sick more than 6 or 8 hours, about the time it takes to secure the effect of a purgative. The purgative I make use of is my grandfather's pills, and they are, to my certain knowledge, the most judiciously balanced purgative in existence. I have used them for 8 months daily, in doses of from 2 to 16 pills per day, to satisfy myself as to their innocency. It therefore, cannot be doubted. It is my opinion, that any person, be he ever so prostrated by disease, provided he is capable of taking exercise at all, may lengthen on his life to 60 years, by continuing to assist his natural functions with the BRANDETH VEGETA-TABLE PILLS. Death never can take place untill the Principle of decomposition puts out the lamp of life. And that would seldom be before 60 or 80 years, was this principle of purgation always resorted to on the first appearance of sickness.

In the hope that these remarks may be of some service, I am the public's obedient servant, D. BRANDETH, M.D.
Great caution is required to procure the genuine Brandeth Pills.
Druggists and Chemists are never in any pro-appointed Agents by Dr. B. All his authorized agents have an engraved certificate of agency, signed by himself; unless this certificate can be shown, do not purchase. This caution is absolutely necessary to guard the public against spurious Pills.
