FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS FOR EARLY MASSES

By the Paulist Fathers. reached in their Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Fifty-ninth Street and Ninth Avenue, New York.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

rought sunday affer pentecost.

"Master, we have labored all the night; and have taken nothing."

St. Peter was without doubt a good fisherman and a patient one, as all good fisherman are. He was content to fish all night with such poor luck as to catch nothing at all.

But after he had taken our Lord on board his ship, it seemed as if all the fish in the lake were anxious to be caught. Such a wonderful haul was made that St. Peter and all the other fishermen were dumbfounded with astonishment. How mightily they were all pleased may well be imagined.

Now, I think there is in our day something going on very like St. Peter's fishing all night and catching no fish. The Oatholic Church is the ship of Peter, and he who exercises the authority of master in that ship, together with his mates and other officers, are holding the place which St. Peter was exalted to when our Lord made him the master fishing for men. That is, the Holy Father, the Pope, the Bishops and priests are fishing for men, and our Lord promised that they should catch them, too.

In a certain degree, also, every one on board Peter's ship—all Catholics—heve to do with this great work—the spreading out the nets and drawing souls into the true Church.

For some time there have been some efforts made to catch a certain kind of board Peter's ship—all Catholics—heve to do with this great work—the spreading out the nets and drawing souls into the true Church.

For some time there have been some efforts made to catch a certain kind of fish known as Protestants, and there is another sort, also becoming common in these waters of ours, called Infidels. And it seem to me that there has been a good deal of fishing all night long, and not half the haul made that was hoged for. We feel like repeating St. Peter's complaint—"Lord, we have labored all the night and taken nothing."

The fishermen know their business and they have worked hard. No trouble on that score. When may we hope that the promise of our Lord will be fulfilled and labor shall be crowned with success? I'll tell you. It will be after Christ has taught His divine doctrine from the ship, and when He can say to us, "Now let down your nets."

If there is anything both true and astonishing it is the prevailing ignorance of their own or of any other religion among. Protestants and Infidels. You would think that among so many learned and well-to do people who have every salvantage of education and general information at hand, they would not only know what they believed, but also the reasons why. They make a great boast of knowing, some of them, all the good that there is in the Bible, and others, all what they call absurdities and contradictions in the holy volume. You need not be afraid of all this supposed knowledge. In fact, they read the Bible very little, and great numbers of them don't hear half of what the majority of us, and the surprised great in formation appreciate all the powerful and logical aspreciate all the powerful a hear us they hear a Christ speak, and when what we speak is for their instruc-tion and suited to their great ignorance of divine things. We must be simple and plain in our instructions when direcand plain in our instructions when directed to them. Moreover, we must thrust this instruction of the first things every Christian (be he child or man) ought to know, upon them, in all charity; and be quick about it, for without it they will be in imminent peril of losing their souls. They are good enough according to what they know. They, like the best of us, love truth, and are really hungering for what is unquestionably for their greater happiness. Oh! if we Catholics would only live like Christ and speak like Christ, then it would be high time to let down the net. Protestants and Infidels would rush in crowds to be taken in. Priests would not know where to find room for the converts.

in. Priests would not know where to find room for the converts.

Enter into the work of spreading Christian doctrine, then. Buy Catholic books of instruction. Buy a good many and give away a good many. Buy a copy of this newspaper and show them this sermon. It may set them thinking, and the reading of good plain instructions, like the simple words of our Lord, will set them to praying as well. When a Protestant or an infidel once begins to pray to know the truth, it will be sure to lead him into the net that is let down from St. Peter's ship, only too happy to be numbered among those taken by the divinely appointed fishers of men.

No injurious effects can follow the use of Ayer's Ague Cure in the treatment of malarial diseases. It contains, besides a specific and unfailing antidote for miasmatic poison, other remedial agents which unite to expel the poisonous humors, purify the system, and leave it in a healthy and reinvigorated condition.

A Wise Conclusion.

HOW PUBLIC ATTENTION IS DIRECTED TO PERSONAL PERILS.

Rochester (N.Y.) Correspondence Indianapolis Sentinel.

"Judge" said a young lawyer to a very successful senior, "tell me the secret of your uniform success at the bar."

"Ah, young man, that secret is a life study, but I will give it to you on condition that you pay all my bills during this session of court."

"Evidence, indisputable evidence."

At the end of the month the judge reminded the young man of his promise.

"I recall no such promise."

"Ab, but you made it."

"Your evidence, please?"

And the judge, not having any witnesses, lost a case for once!

The man who can produce indisputable evidence wins public favor. I had an interview yesterday with the most successful of American advertisers, whose advertising is most successful because always backed by evidence.

"What styles of advertising do you use?" I asked H. H. Warner, Esq.

"Display, reading matter and paragraphs of testimonials."

"Have you many testimonials?"

In answer he showed me a large aching the

"Display, reading matter and paragraphs of testimonials."

"Have you many testimonials?"

In answer he showed me a large cabinet chock-full. "We have enough to fill Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia morning papers."

"Do you publish many of them?"

"Not a tithe. Wonderful as are those we do publish, we have thousands like them which we cannot use. "Why not?"
Let me tell you. "Warner's safe cure' has probably been the most successful medicine for female disorders ever discovered. We have testimonials from ladies of the highest rank, but it would be indelicate to publish them. Likewise many statesmen, lawyers, clergymen, doctors of world-wide fame have been cured, but we can only refer to such persons in the most guarded terms, as we do in our reading articles."

"Are these reading articles successful?"

"When read they make such an impression that when the 'evil days' of ill-health draw nigh they are remembered, and Warner's safe cure is used."

"No, sir, it is not necessary now, as at first, to do such constant and extensive advertising. A meritorious medicine sells itself after its merits are known. We present just evidence enough to disarm skeptics and to impress the merits of the remedies upon new consumers. We feel it to be our duty to do this. Hence, best to accomplish our mission of healing the sick, we have to use the reading-article style. People won't read plain testimonials."

"Yes, sir, thousands admit that had they not learned of Warner's safe cure cases as thousands can testify.

The second dose eased me so much that I slept two hours, something I had not done for two months. Before I had used five bottles, I was well and at work as hard as any man could, for over three weeks; but I worked too hard for my strength, and taking a hard cold, I was taken with the most acute and painful rheumatism all through my system that ever was known.

I balled the doctors again, and after several weeks they left me a cripple on crutches for the weeks they left me a cripple on crutches for the weeks they left me a cripple on crutches at the sease of the sease die!!!!

pague-sericen for several months because its water supply was carelessly poisoned. The kidneys and liver are the sources of physical well-being. If polluted by disease, all the blood becomes poisoned and every organ is affected, and this great danger threatens everyone who neglects to treat himself promptly. I was nearly dead myself of extreme kidney disease, but what is now Warner's safe cure cured me, and I know it is the only remedy in the world that can cure such disorders, for I tried everything else in vain. Cured by it myself, I bought it and, from a sense of duty, presented it to the world. Only by restoring the kidneys and liver can disease leave the blood and the system."

A celebrated sanitarian physician once said to me: "The secret of the wonderful success of Warner's safe cure is that it is sovereign over all kidney, liver and urinary diseases, which primarily or secondarily make up the msjority of human ailments. Like all great discoveries, it is remarkably simple."

The house of H. H. Warner & Co. stands deservedly high in Rochester, and it is certainly matter of congratulation that merit has been recognized all over the world, and that this success has been unqualifiedly deserved.
