FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS FOR EARLY MASSES

By the Paulist Fathers. sached in their Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Fifty-ninth atreet and Ninth avenue, New York City.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

THIRD SUNDAY AFFER EASTER.

"The Good of all grace, who hash called us to His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little will Himself person."—Words from to-day's epistle.

The time in which the Easter Communion should be made is now drawing towards its close. To-day is the third Sunday after Easter, and Trinity Sunday, the last day for fulfilling the precept, is only five weeks off. All therefore, who have not yet performed their interest to a confessed and profound ignorated sunday after Easter, and Trinity Sunday, the last day for fulfilling the precept, is only five weeks off. All therefore, who have not yet performed their duty should begin to think seriously about it.

There is a very weighty consideration which I wish to lay before those who are still negligent. Indeed, what I have to say concerns all who remain for any length of time in the state of sin. Consequently being lost forever. This, of course, is a point which no prudent man will neglect. What I wish specially to point out, however, is that, even supposing that those who are in the state of sin. Could be certain that they would before the end recover the state of grace, and should actually do so, and so secure eternal happiness, yet for all that the whole of the time apent in the state of sin. This loss is no trifling one, will appear from what I am going to say.

As you well know, my dear brethren, Almighty God requires of each of our labor. This reward must be earned. The crown of glory is not an alms thrown to a beggar, it is the payment due in justice for work done. But this is only a part of the truth. We have, indeed, to earn, to deserve the eternal recompenses which God has promised; but that we may be able to do so God's grace is necessary. Not necessary merely in the sense that the whomerits must be in the state of grace, every supernatural work at least, that it to say, every work which springs from faith and hope, is a meritorious action, and deserves for him who performs it an increase of never ending joy and happiness. We may, perhaps, so even further than the state of grace, every supernatural work at least, that it is only a part of the truth. We have, indeed, to earn, to deserve the eternal recompense which God has promised; but that we may peable to do so God's grace is necessary. Not necessary merely in the sense that he who merits must be in the state of grace, every supernatural work at least, that is to say, every work which springs from faith and h least, that is to asy, every work which apprings from faith and hope, is a meritorious action, and deserves for him who performs it an increase of never ending joy and happiness. We may, perhaps, go even further than this; for there seemed to be good reason for thinking that not merely every supernatural action, but every good action, even though it springs from merely naturally good motives, is meritorious in God's sight. And not only are the actions of a man who is in the state of grace meritorious, but the greater part of them have also another fruit of great value. The term-poral punishment to which, there is reasoned to think, there is reasoned to the think of the properties of the think of the temporal punishment which are performed in the state of grace have a two fold value; they are meritorious of reward, and they are meritorious of reward, and they are meritorious of reward, and the state of sin, what are they worth? I will not say that they are worth nothing; that would not be true. But this is certain—they are meritorious of reward, and they the temporal punishment. But now suppose that these works done by a man not in the state of sin, what are they worth? I will not say that they are worth nothing; that would not be true. But this is certain—they are meritorious of reward, and the state of sin, what are they worth? The properties of the properties which must be earned. All the works done by a man in this state are lost, and the time is lost. It matters not how difficult, or how good in other respects these works and actions may be, they do not deserve eternal life; they do not eatisfy for past sin. If this is so, is not this in itself a sufficient reason for at once fulfiling our duty, and thereby obtaining such a value for our actions as to make our life really worth living.

COMSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all threat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has presents, after having tested its wonderful fertitive powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering. I will send free of charge, to all who desie it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mall by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. Wind the Clock.

The best clock needs regulating and winding when the main-spring runs down. So, too, when the human machinery gives out, it needs regulating and the main-spring (pure blood) needs toning. Burdock Blood Bitters will regulate and tone all broken down conditions of the system. In purchasing B. B. B. beware of counterfeits.

Mr. John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything so effectual. Good results immediately follow its use. I know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for 9 or 10 years with Dyspepsia, and since using it digertion goes on without that depressed feeling so well known to dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of Indigestion, Constipation, Heartburn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

THE HEOTIC FLUSH, pale hollow checks and precarious appetits, indicate worms. Freeman's Worm Powders will quickly and effectually remove them.

"THE MODERN PAGAN."

INGERSOLL REVIEWED BY GENERAL G. A SHERIDAN, AS A MORAL ANARCHIST.

SHERIDAN, AS A MORAL ANACHIST.

Not long since, in Washington city, Gen. Geo. A. Sheridan delivered a masterly lecture on Ingersollism, in one of the churches of that city. After a tribute to the personal character of the archinfidel, the lecturer said "the only weapons he uses against Christianity are sneers, ribald jests, unjustifiable assertions, bold missia ements, and utter diaregard of facts united to a confessed and profound ignorance of the subjects he attempts to discuss."

most splendid defence of "the book of books the masterpiece of all ages," of which Col. Ingersoll says: "That book I have taken pains to say was not written by any god. And why do I say so? Because I can write a far better book myself."

Upon this assertion Gen. Sheridan excortates the modern pagan without mercy. Next the inability of Col. Ingersoll, because of his ignorance, is shown, and then the fact that philosophy, science, oratory, genius, learning in all ages, have acknowledged God, and that Col. Ingersoll is simply "full of vanity, puffed up with concett, and consumed with admiration of his own inability" when he attacks God, the bible and the Church.

Col. Ingersoll is then shewn to be an "intellectual and moral anarchist," who proposes to destroy all that is valuable in life, and gives us nothing in its place.

Stop It.

Continual hawking and spitting caused by Catarrh is permanently removed by Nasal Raim. WHAT A COMFORT TO BE ABLE to gratify

WHAT A COMFORT TO BE ABLE to gratify one's appetite once more without pain, after long suffering from Dyspepsia! Victims of indigestion wise enough to accept the general verdict in favor of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure as true, and use the article, can enjoy the welcome relief. Obstinate Dyspepsia, Constipation and Billousness, invariably yield to its potent regulating action.
