REVISION OF "THE WESLEYAN" SUBSCRIPTION LISTS.

During recent months we have been endeavoring to prepare for this work, and we have again and again, and in different ways, appealed to both agents and subscribers to aid us in this preparation. We have delayed, week after week since the new year began, entering on the work itself, in order that the task might be as easy as possible. "$2 PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE" has stood prominently on each number of the paper, as the terms of its publication, and this should have been carefully noticed; but the Rule, which this expression constitutes, has been duly observed by but far too few of our subscribers, until at length the amount of arrearages has become distressingly large; and the question how best to deal with them is indeed a perplexing one. It seems that it would hardly now be prudent to attempt a rigid enforcement of the rule for advance payments in all cases; and on the other hand to continue to send the paper to parties who are allowing arrearages to accumulate against them yes

FOR

As a sort of middle course which, it is thought, will be approved by all reasonable persons, it has been resolved, to omit from the Mailing Lists, until a remittance is received, the name of every subscriber who has failed to make a payment since the year 1879 began.

It is upon this principle we are proceeding in the revision which we have this week com. menced. We are endeavouring to guard very carefully against omitting, from the revised lists, the name of a single friend who has, within the past fourteen months, paid a year's subscription, either directly to the office, or to any one of the authorized agents on the Circuits. If, however, any such omission should be made, we will esteem it a special favour if it is immediately reported to the office; and we will hasten to correct the mistake.

We know that many, probably most of those from whom the principle, which governs us in making the revision, requires us to withhold the paper until a remittance is received, are both able and willing to pay for the paper, and to meet all their liabilities, and we fear that some of them. our personal and much-respected friends, may at first be inclined to feel offended because the general principle which it was judged necessary to adopt, has been allowed to apply quite unne cessarily to their cases. We are sure, however, that they will not yield to this feeling. No offence has been intended. Neither their ability nor their integrity is questioned. But the principle of action having been adopted, it was necessary to make its application universal.

Any person whose paper may be withheld may at once secure the re-entering of his name on the Mailing Sheet, for the year 1880, by sending two dollar to the office. March 11, 1880.
