Rev. GEORGE WHITEFIELD TO Rev. JOHN WESLEY.

Bristol, Dec. 3rd, 1733

My dear Sir,

It seems you so weak when leaving London distressed me, the news and prospect of your approaching dissolution bath quite weighed me down. I pity myself and the Church, but not you: a patient throne awaits you, and ere long you will entertain your master's joy; you'll be staid with a massive crown, ready to put it on your head amidst an admiring throng of saints and angels.

My heart is too big, tears trickle down to rest, and you are I fear too weak for me to enlarge. Underneath you may there be Christ's everlasting arms! I commend you to his never-failing mercy, and am, Rev. and dear Sir, your most sympathizing and afflicted younger brother in the gospel of our common Lord.

THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL!

WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD. DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING OF IT? IF NOT, IT IS TIME YOU DID.

There are but few preparations of medicine which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL, purely a preparation of six of the best Oils that are known, each one possessing virtues of its own. Scientific physicians know that medicines may be formed of several ingredients in certain fixed proportions of greater power, and producing effects which could never result from the use of any one of them, or in different combinations. Thus in the preparation of this Oil a chemical change takes place, forming a compound which could not by any possibility be made from any other combination or proportions of the same ingredients, or any other ingredients, and entirely different from anything ever before made, one which produces the most astonishing results, and having a wider range of application than any medicine ever before discovered.

S. N. THOMAS, Phelps, N. Y. And NORTHROP & LYMAN, Sole Agents for the Dominion. NOTE.—Electric—Selected and Electro-trized. 2m. Nov 4.

WE were exposed last week to a pitiless storm that wet our feet and stockings, and indeed our person all over. In fact, we took a cracking cold, which brought sore throat and severe symptoms of fever. The good wife asserted her authority, plunged our feet in hot water, wrapped us in hot blankets, and sent our faithful son for a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is a splendid medicine, pleasant to take, and did the job. We slept soundly through the night, and awoke well the next morning. We know we owe our quick recovery to the Pectoral, and shall not hesitate to recommend it to all who need such a medicine.—Toluacana (Texas) Presbyterian.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"If we consider the matter of which the various chapters treat, the style in which they are compiled, the binding, and the very moderate price at which they can be supplied to school sections, we cannot fail to be assured that the works now introduced will be accepted as a most valuable addition to our school literature, affording alike to teachers and pupils a most pleasing and profitable variety in their reading exercises.

"The publications, as already stated in our columns, have been adopted by the Council of Public Instruction for use in our schools. The government of the various Australian colonies have also adopted them, and they are, we believe, to be used extensively in their schools. Both in England and Scotland their use is widespread, and they have proved themselves favorites with both teachers and pupils."

"These books are admirably adapted to the purposes of teaching, illustrated as they are on almost every page, and printed in clear, bold type. Moreover, they are wonderfully cheap, and most of them are new publications. They have been adopted in Australia, while in England and Scotland they are widely used. The matter is modern, very instructive, and so beautifully embellished that scholars will turn to them with avidity."

"A better graduated series of school books than those issued by Messrs. Collins we have seldom seen. The matter is most judiciously chosen, and the illustrations, which are numerous and well executed, are calculated to fix the various incidents on the minds of the scholars."

"We have carefully looked over the successive volumes, and have no hesitation in pronouncing them in every respect far superior to any series that has yet been introduced into Nova Scotia—leading the pupil by a most pleasant and instructive path from the rudiments of knowledge until almost a liberal education might be obtained without the aid of other works. The illustrations are a splendid feature. These books have been prescribed for use in the public schools of the Province; they will be for sale at all the book stores; leading educational authorities have pronounced strongly in their favor; their use will greatly reduce the cost of text-books to the parents of pupils; and there can be little doubt that they will be universally adopted."

"The superiority of these books over all others hitherto published will be at once apparent." "We heartily commend the series as forming a noble sub-structure of a sound English education."
