and members of the Church of England in Lincoln in the loss they have sustained by the death of their aged and revered Bishop, and it recognized with gratitude to Almighty God the enrichment of the common Christian life of the country by his saintliness of character, by his faithful and steadfast loyalty to all that he held to be the truth, and by his kindly, tender personality.

Throughout the world, and amongst foreign missionary enthusiasts in particular, the name of Livingstone will long be revered. An interesting relic recently came into the possession of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. It is a hitherto unpublished letter from Livingstone, and was written from Kuruman, July 23, 1843, and addressed to Mr. Fergus Ferguson, whose Bible Class Livingstone attended as a boy, having been kept and prized ever since by his son, Dr. Fergusson. In that letter Livingstone speaks of the great need of the Holy Spirit's work in the matter of conversion to Christ. "I implore your prayers," he writes, "that I may be made wise to win souls."
