WHY NOT IN GALILEE?

Acts 1, 8. "And ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth," but why not in Galilee, where the Master had been brought up, and shown most of his wonderful works.

The answer will be supplied at the Sunday School convention to be held at Elmsville, July 24, 25.

Programme: Business meeting in the church at 4 p. m., where all are welcome proceedings being conducted according to parliamentary practice by the delegates of St. Andrews deacons. Official tea by the vestry at 6 p. m. Evensong at 8.30 p. m., Rev. T. F. Marshall, of Calais, select preacher, subject "Jesus, subject to his parents."

Three papers are being prepared by delegates of the parish of St. David, St. Patrick, and St. James, respectively entitled, "The pre-requisites of all educated," by Miss Eva Maxwell of Moore's Mills;

"Woman's sphere in religious ministry," Miss Lorene Dyer, of Elmsville; and "Institutional work as supplementary to Sunday school work," by Mrs. James Monahan, of Elmsville.

All superintendents of Sunday schools in the deacons are expected to bring or send reports.

The island delegates will be put in connexion with the steamer Grand Manan by automobile on Thursday. Others who use the train or wish to stay over night will have hospitality.

If religious lethargy can be stirred even to make excuses for poor attendance, then something will be accomplished by this announcement.

QUENTIN ROOSEVELT FALLS

London, July 17.—Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's youngest son, who has been attached to the American line forces on the Marne front, was killed at Chateau Thierry on July 14, says a dispatch from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Lieutenant Roosevelt, the dispatch says was returning after a patrol fight, when he was attacked by a German squadron. It was seen that Roosevelt suddenly lost control of his machine, having probably received a mortal wound.

Oyster May, L. I., July 17.—"Quentin's mother and I are very glad that he has had the chance to render some service to his country and to show the stuff that was in him before his fate befell him."

This statement was issued by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to-day after dispatches had furnished confirmation of early reports that his son, Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, had been killed in an aerial battle in France.
