Marlboro S. Church Rally day services were held yes-terday afternoon in Mariboro street Methodist church with an attendance reaching the very satisfactory and gratifying figure of 350. The pro-Act. Mrs. Frank Smith also favored with a solo.

Elm Avenue S.S. held their annual Rally, with an attendance of one hundred and seventy, and forty visitors. Orchestra furnished music, while the school was gathering. The school had for its opening hymn. "There's a royal banner given for display," and then repeated the twenty-third Psalm in unison. School again sang "When He cometh," after which Mr. Sumler led in prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer by the whole school. Mr. Foster, assistant Superintendant, chose the Ninteenth Psalm for the day's reading. The Stubbins then rendered very feeling-ly the old familiar song, "My Moth-cr's Prayer." The reports of each choir was assisted by Mr. Green.
