WINTER WORK. Winter work is now in full swing on the creeks and from reports received satisfactory progress is being made.

tion charges, as also various economies which have been introduced into operating methods...

THE MEAT CORNER. The meat trust is making the utmost out of the necessities of the people, and it is unfortunately a fact...

The Nugget submits that such an occasion now confronts this community. Public opinion will sustain the authorities in any action which may be taken to relieve the situation...

It is not likely that the Hon. James Hamilton Ross will learn of his splendid victory for a number of days. The first steamer out of Skagway since the election will leave today.

The Nugget's prediction that the majority for Mr. Ross would need to be indicated by four figures did not all vary wide of the mark.

Communications in publication in this column are invited from all sections of public interest. Correspondents are requested to be as brief as possible...

Dear Sir,—The articles that have appeared lately in your paper with reference to the meat situation are not borne out by the facts or the conditions.
