THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

BRIEFLETS.

It is a wise man who can recognize his portrait in the enterprising newspaper.

Mr. John Sanders, of Kemptville, has a bonanza in the shape of a calf with six legs and two tails. It is now about two months old and is strong and healthy.

Two young women in New Orleans earn $48 per month keeping books, and on this they bought and paid for a cozy little house for themselves and their mother.

Several towns have been swept away by the floods in the Rio Grande valley, two-thirds of the crops being also destroyed and 500 families reduced to utter destruction.

The secretary of the Industrial Exhibition, Toronto, is arranging for an excursion to New Orleans at the time of the great international exhibition to be held in that city.

The new steamship "Oregon" made the passage from Queenstown to Sandy Hook in six days, ten hours and ten minutes. She beats the best record ever made by eleven hours and thirty minutes.

In each of the last two years there were more than 26,000 unaddressed letters detained at the General Post Office in England. In this batch was enclosed in each year about £6,000 in cash, cheques, or some other form.

Mr. Angus Buchanan, druggist, of Kemptville, has a curiosity in his shop, preserved in spirits. It is a four legged and three-winged turkey chicken. It was hatched on the farm of Hebron Wood, was healthy and lived for some days.

Fortress Munroe, Virginia, is the largest fort in the world, covering an area of seventy acres. It was built in 1817, and to the uninitiated looks impregnable. In shape it is an irregular hexagon, two sides facing the water while four command the land approaches.

While George Lempe, of Green Island, was working in his garden the other morning, he dug up a crock filled with Spanish gold. Their estimated value is $400. Judging from the dates on the coins, they must have been buried over 200 years ago.

Nothing adds so much to the attractions of a home as a choice collection of house plants and flowers. A lady friend of ours who is noted for her choice collections, gave us the following as her mode of stimulating house plants: An ounce of nitrate of soda dissolved in four gallons of water is a quick and good stimulant for bulbs, applied twice a week after the pots are filled with roots and the flower spikes are fairly visible. A large handful of soot, or about a pint, tied up in a piece of all canvas and immersed in the same quantity of water for a day or two, will furnish a safe and excellent stimulant; also good and safe is a quarter of a pound of cow manure mixed in a large garden pot of water, and used as required. Any of these stimulants will do good, or the whole of them applied alternately will benefit bulbs that need more sustenance than the soil affords.

A Wife's Commandments.

Thou shalt have no other wife but me.

Thou shalt not have a photograph or any other likeness of any lady but thy wife.

Thou shalt not keep it in secret or worship it, for I, thy wife, am a jealous wife.

Thou shalt not speak thy wife's name with levity.

Remember thy wife's wishes and keep them sacred.

Honor thy wife and love her, that thou mayest be long in the house she keeps for thee.

Thou shalt not find fault with thy wife when she requests thee not to chew and smoke.

Thou shalt not scold.

Thou shalt not use profane language if thou find a buttonless shirt, for remember thy wife has a great deal to do.

Thou shalt not frequent the hotels or gambling saloons and neglect thy wife and children.

Thou shalt not drive a fast horse, or bet on a horse's age, or take any lady riding except thy wife.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's fine house, nor his wife, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Thou shalt not prevent thy wife from going to Women's Christian Temperance Union meetings, neither to speak herself or to hear others speak.

Thou shalt not scold if thou hast to get up and build the fire on cold mornings, neither if thy wife stay out rather late in the evening.

Thou shalt not run up large bills for tobacco and whisky, for thy wife's pocketbook wants replenishing, for verily she knoweth her needs.

L. L. L.

The following is a sample of the many letters we receive for our Lamb's Lubricating Liniment, and shows to the public its fame is fast becoming known abroad as well as home. One bottle will convince the most incredulous of its wonderful curative powers:

LANCASTER, June 20th 1884.

Mr. J. P. Lamb,

DEAR SIR:—Please send me one dozen of your L. L. Liniment as soon as possible, as I intend going away soon and I want to take some with me, it is such a good medicine to keep in the house for almost every complaint or accident. We think it will cure almost anything, and have, as you know, used it a long time, always giving the best satisfaction.

Mother is troubled with the rheumatism and it always helps her and the only thing she ever got to give her relief. We would not be without it for a good deal and hope it may become widely known that it may give relief to many sufferers.

Yours truly,

ANNIE J. NICHOLSON.
