

ON THE HOME STRETCH

Carpenters and Builders have been working like bees for months to build you the prettiest and most complete Dry Goods Store in Central Canada. Their work is almost finished. In a couple of weeks we will move.

We want to raise $5,000 more before moving to pay for the New

Fall Goods

Specially imported for our first opening in new store.

Can we do it?

If there are as many thrifty people in and around Brockville as we think, we should easily raise twice the amount. Why? Because the Great Slaughter includes our choicest

Dress Goods, Silks, Linens, Cottons, Prints, Hosiery, Gloves, Underwear, Flannels, Blankets, Carpets, Curtains, Floor Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Poles, House Furnishings, Shawls, Wraps, Waterproofs, Mantles, Cloths, Tweeds.

In fact, every line in our complete and up-to-date stock. Let us state the case to you plainly:

You have money and want (or will soon want) Dry Goods.

We Want the money, and in order to induce you to make an exchange now we are giving $1.50, in some cases $2.00, for your Dollar.

Make out a list of the things you need at once to-day—and come here early to fill it.

COUNTY NEWS.

A Budget of News and Gossip. Personal Intelligence. A Little of Everything. Frank Willard U.P.

MONDAY, August 17.—Mr. W. D. Livingston wears a happy smile. It is Kennedy of Portland took place at Delta, in the paragon. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Sarah Rainin, while Mr. S. G. Heston officiated. The Rev. G. P. Poyner made in Chantry factory during the absence of his brother Henry, who has gone over to England on chess business.

TUESDAY, August 18.—On Wednesday evening, 12th inst., the marriage of Miss Nellie Edmond to Mr. J. P. Poyner of Portland took place at Delta, in the paragon. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Sarah Rainin, while Mr. S. G. Heston officiated. The Rev. G. P. Poyner made in Chantry factory during the absence of his brother Henry, who has gone over to England on chess business.

THURSDAY, August 15.—The picnic held at Haskin's Point last Wednesday was a decided success in every way. Although it was a busy time, it was well attended, a good many people coming from a distance. A splendid dinner was provided and served at noon time, to which ample justice was done. After dinner speeches were given by the chairman, Mr. Andrew Grey, Rev. Mr. Wright, Rev. W. Moore, and Mr. A. E. Donovan. The sports consisted of 100 yard race, three-legged race, and a football match, played between the Sealey's Bay senior and junior teams, which was won by the former by one goal. A dancing party was given, which was very successful. The picnic was held under the auspices of L. O. L. No. 13, but the proceeds go for the benefit of St. Peter's church building fund. The proceeds were nearly $125.00.

FRIDAY, August 16.—Harvesting will soon be a thing of the past. Bert Bullard started his steam thrasher yesterday. It gave the best of satisfaction. Mr. J. E. Knapp is at present away to the Callaghan Springs. Master Grant Knapp, who had the misfortune to get his arm broken a week ago, is doing nicely. Mr. Thomas Knapp is at present very low and is not expected to recover. A large number passed through here on Sunday last on their way to the dedication of the Horneric church. It is with feelings of deep regret that we are called upon to announce that death has once more entered our midst and has this time claimed for its victim one of our most popular young ladies, in the person of Miss Olive Jackson, who was called away on the 16th inst. She was a young lady of about eighteen years, and was well and widely known. Miss Jackson was taken ill about two weeks ago with brain fever and grew steadily worse until death put an end to her suffering. She leaves a mother, three sisters and three brothers to mourn her loss. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole community.

Last Sabbath morn. a thunder cloud made its appearance for the first time since the 1st of July.

But the quakers gathered on the woodland hill. With quakers beating true and warm. To walk on the Lord and to do His will. In the face of the gathering storm.

But they thought not on the power of the Lord. And thought as the quate went whirling past. Of the prospect in the cave.

Desiring, too, that the Lord should come. And bid their hearts, and their feet. Which He likewise bid, though not in the storm. But as with a still, small voice.

Then the love which they felt for their friends. Made their love for each other increase. Till the room echoed with their praise. Seemed the court of the Prince of Peace.

O. I often think of the forces of the gate. And the members of the church. But above it all I had rather tell. Of the peace that is in the heart.

And now I concede, in cheerful accord. As we traverse the narrow way. That the voice of the Lord is the law of the Lord. Just as the quakers say.
