Old Father Thames is making his presence felt.

This weather is nice, but how long will it last?

"Spring is over. The small boys are tired playing marbles."

It won't be very pleasant for those east-enders when Mrs. Pleasant's lots are located.

Everybody with a lot to sell has a suggestion in regard to a site for a new building.

If the water rises high enough in the river it will wash away that monument to Tecumseh, on Tecumseh Park.

Everybody is holding their breath and anxiously waiting to see what will become of Wallace Buckford in the Stranger and the Princess.

Is it good will towards England that makes the American people treat King Edward's nephew with such honor?

Where there is a Runaway Girl there is generally a man in the case. So the Runaway Girl will be seen at the Opera House to-morrow night.

Here that woman who owned those lots in Chatham East spells her name Pleasant, while this G. H. J. spelled it Pleasance. Curious the woman did not know how to spell her own name.

That $50,000 coal hoist for Erieau proves that the Lake Erie R. R. realizes that Rondeau is a better harbor than Port Stanley. We knew this all the time and we are glad that the Lake Erie R. R. has found it out.

Henry Marshall says that the reason the Thames street road is not paved, is to be found in the humanity of the residents. All the horses in the vicinity have corns, and the tender-hearted people don't want the equines to hurt their feet. They believe the Humane Officer can find

Consumption

Is a disease of civilization. When the Indian was a stranger to the white man he had no name in his vocabulary for this dreaded malady.

Without arguing as to the curability of consumption, it may be stated positively that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures weak lungs, hemorrhages, bronchitis, deep-seated and stubborn cough, and other diseases which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Persons suffering from chronic disease are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is conducted under the seal of sacred secrecy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

In a little over thirty years, Dr. Pierce, assisted by his medical staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated and cured thousands of men and women who had been given up as incurable by local physicians.

"Your medicine is the best I have ever taken," writes Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Rapid City, Kansas Co., Mich. "Last spring I had a bad cough; got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and before I had taken one bottle the cough stopped and I have since had no sign of its returning."

weight was so great and as a result the elevator dropped so fast that I was left behind in the air and never caught the elevator till the rebound at the bottom. Hence I wasn't hurt."

NOT ALTOGETHER USELESS.

"Not an English nobleman spend their days in idleness and uselessness."

"No?"

"No; Lord Gower is busy designing clothes for men, which will distinguish them from waiters."

Theatrical

"A RUNAWAY GIRL."

One of the surest evidences of the success and popularity of a musical comedy is the demand made by the audience for the repetition of more or less of the musical numbers that are introduced or that form a necessary part of the play. This fact has been and is nightly illustrated by the demand made by the large audiences attending the production of the international musical comedy success, "A Runaway Girl." From two to six encores are exacted of the artists singing the catchy airs of "The Sligh Cigarette," "Follow the Man from Cook's," "The Boy Guessed Right," "High Society," "Not the kind of Girl I care about," "Soldiers in the Park," or, as more popularly known, "Listen to the Band," and the Negro oddity, "The Godlins." These musical gems, and several others, are nightly sang in this production, and in conjunction with many graceful dances performed by both principals and chorus, and the bright wit and sparkling humor pervading the play, have served to establish "A Runaway Girl," as the cleanest, merriest and most meritorious musical comedy of the age. This exquisite comedy, with all its original music and multitudinous catchy features, will be witnessed in this city at The Grand on Thursday night.

The organization presenting it is the Augustin Daly Company, and is the only organization in America that is doing so. At the head of this strong and efficient company is that exceptionally versatile and popular comedian, Mr. Arthur Dunn. Besides this artist, there are some fifty other people in the company, among the names of which are seen many that are well and favorably known.

"A RUNAWAY GIRL"

Last Seen Coming This Way With Arthur Dunn and Company of Fifty Artists.

Unquestionably, the musical and comedy event of the theatrical season in this city, and the society event of our best class of music loving citizens, will be the occasion of the appearance of the Augustin Daly Company in the production of "A Runaway Girl," which appears at the Grand Opera House here to-morrow night.

Both names are familiar to the reading public—that of Augustin Daly as being the name of the foremost theatrical manager of America of his day, and that of "A Runaway Girl" as being the title of the most pronounced success that has ever been achieved by a musical comedy in London or America. In London it "ran" six hundred nights; in New York City, three hundred nights. Some delicate intrinsic merit must be attached to the play to create such success in two so widely different spheres. This, however, has been its record wherever produced. Originality, catchy music, witty and humorous dialogue, amusing comedy, pretty faces, handsome costumes, neat dances and elaborate and picturesque scenery are each and all entitled to their respective credit for the result. But over and above all these was the master hand that produced and directed the play—that of Augustin Daly. His vast experience, his knowledge of the public wants, his innate refinement and artistic sense and appreciation of all that is beautiful, enabled him to perceive that which is catchy and sparkling without being vulgar, laughable and humorous without being coarse, bright and witty without being risqué, and a keen sense of extravagant comedy without having a shadow of suggestion. It was this acute perception, and the possession of that instinctive craving for the artistic, that gave him the ability to produce in "A Runaway Girl," the most delightful and refined musical comedy that has been seen for years. With an organization of 50 artists, including the clever and versatile comedian, Mr. Arthur Dunn, one can confidently look forward to an evening of enjoyable recreation and amusement.

WOMAN.

Publisher—"You are a poor observer, or else you have not been consistent in writing this book."

Author—"How so?"

"You have made your heroine act logically."

Lady—"Aren't you the man to whom I gave a piece of cake recently?"

Tramp—"Yes, ma'am."

Have you been working since? No, ma'am; I have been in the hospital ever since.

A Liberal, high in the party secrets, told me that the Conservatives with a good man could redeem West Kent this year. The Conservatives have a good candidate in John S. Fraser. Even a Grit can guess the result.

Two little tots, a boy and a girl, aged somewhere about seven, a white horse and a cart furnished lots of fun for the spectators on King St. yesterday afternoon. The two children had as much real enjoyment as anybody, and yet there is nothing more pleasing than to see children happy.

It is rather cruel sport for a forams to abuse the ignorance of a raw employe by sending him on foolish errands. A tall young Englishman came to this G. H. J. yesterday to borrow the impression of the big press. He got a hundred pound weight, but brought it back in ten minutes saying it wouldn't do.

To show that even the G. H. J. is not infallible, I would like to quote an article yesterday—

"The property was purchased from a man named Macrae. Her maiden name was Mary E. Smith."

Apparently that quotation means nothing, and I guess that is about right.
