ALWAYS THE GRAFT.

Thirty years ago good old Alexander Mackenzie wrote this to a political friend:

"I would much like to be relieved of the public works department. It is the great spending department; the possible great jobbing department. Friends (I) expect to be benefited by offices they are unfit for, by contracts they are not entitled to, by advances not earned. Enemies push themselves with friends, and push the friends to the front. Some attempt to storm the office. Some dig trenches at a distance, and approach in regular siege form. I feel like the besieged, lying on my arms night and day. I have offended at least twenty parliamentary supporters by my defense of the civil."

It was graft then and it is graft now. Wherever in Canada there has been a Grit Government, there has been unlimited graft. Things at Ottawa now are much as they were in Mackenzie's time, the only difference being that while Mackenzie stood guard over the public treasury, nobody now thinks it worth while trying to check the grafters. —Hamilton Spectator.

OUT OF HIS ELEMENT.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, "got into the wrong paddock," when he entered politics, said the Winnipeg Telegram recently. The saying had truth. In the law courts A. B. Aylesworth was a success. In politics he has been a glaring failure. He took into the House of Commons not the savvy, which should have characterized a new member and a legal gentleman, but an irritable boorishness which finds its only mate in the vicious ill-temper of Frank Oliver. Aylesworth, the parliamentarian, is a long drop from Aylesworth the private practitioner.

In a rural constituency in Ontario the other day the Minister of Justice made a speech that should be emblazoned in the national museum as a warning to future Canadians.

Grafting, the Minister of Justice acknowledged, goes on. It goes on in his own department, as he showed:

"I am acting as Minister of Public Works and only last week I had a case where a man held up the Government, and we were forced to pay fifty per cent. more than its value for a piece of land, but, if we went to law about it, in all probability the lawyers would get the difference, so I concluded to pay the man his price."

Behold the meek and accommodating Aylesworth in his grand act of giving a political hand-out. He gave the hand-out because "the lawyers would get the difference!" What lawyers! The Government has all kinds of lawyers working on yearly salary in the Justice Department of which A. B. Aylesworth is head. It has, also, A. B. Aylesworth himself and Hon. Jacques Bureau, Solicitor-General. Couldn't either of these gentlemen, or the Deputy Minister of Justice—who is an eminent K. C.—or some of the other lawyers in the Department, where they have many other K. C.'s and non-K. C.'s—take the brief and earn their salaries?

Certainly not. The Government is indisposed to fight its own friends.

PRESENTATION TO AN ESTEEMED TEACHER

A surprise was sprung on Miss Rowe, teacher of S. S. No. 6, North Chatham, on Monday last, 25th inst., when parents and friends met in the school room. After regret had been expressed that circumstances obliged her to resign her charge there after a number of years of faithful service, the pupils in token of their high estimation of her character, presented her with a handsome set of silver knives and forks in cases.

The following address was read by Miss Bertha Lamb, and apparently they mutually felt the parting:

Our dear teacher:
Some one has said:—

There is no union here of hearts,
That finds not here an end.

Day by day we are being painfully reminded of the truthfulness of this. We have learned with regret that your relation with us as our teacher is soon to end, and to each of us there comes a sense of personal loss. The friendships formed when first you came to us have been developed by the years of absolute trustfulness and deepest respect, and with the breaking of these ties comes a sense of personal pain and sorrow not easily described. We realize that you have not only done your duty as teacher, but we remember with pleasure the years of faithful service, Christian example and pleasant associations, and deplore the fact that this association must so soon be things of the past. We know that the world must go on and that new ties must be formed, but your relations with your pupils was always so pleasant a nature that we could almost wish that they might continue on without interruption.

And now we beg of you to accept this small but tangible expression of the esteem and love in which you are held by your pupils, and as a reminder in days to come of the loyal hearts you have left behind.

Signed on behalf of S. S. No. 6, North Chatham.

GOES TO TORONTO

London, June 26.—The resignation of Rev. J. J. Ross, of the Talbot street Baptist Church, was read in church Sunday. While the congregation had known for some time that their pastor had a call from the Devonport Road Baptist Church, Toronto, it was earnestly hoped that he would see fit to remain here.

He has been pastor of the Talbot Street Church for four years, and during that time, by his eloquence in the pulpit as well as by his kindly disposition, he has won for himself an enviable place in the hearts of his people in this city.

Prior to coming to London, Mr. Ross was stationed in Chatham, and the additional responsibility of each succeeding charge speaks eloquently of his growing fame as a preacher and his desirability as an earnest and self-sacrificing pastor.

Mr. Ross leaves for Toronto on the 15th of September. It is, of course, impossible as yet to say who his successor in the Talbot Street Church will be.

"BLUE DEVILS"

Get Rid of Indigestion And Things Will Look Bright And Joyous.

Even in the present era of prosperity and good times everything appears black to those people who are suffering wretchedly from some form of indigestion. Where digestion is quick, complete and easy there is a joyous and hopeful outlook, but indigestion causes depression.

The want of a safe, effective cure for sick headache, indigestion, stomach troubles, was always felt until the prescription known as Mi-o-na stomach tablets was put up in popular form and proved its invariable success in the many forms of indigestion.

After a few days use of Mi-o-na stomach tablets, the headache, dizzy feeling, drowsiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, nervousness, sleeplessness, distress after eating—all these symptoms of a weak stomach—will disappear and perfect digestion and a good skin will show that the vital machinery is once more running smoothly.

Mi-o-na is to be taken before each meal and it will stimulate the secretory and digestive juices and strengthen the whole of the digestive system so that the unpleasant full feeling will be absent and indigestion prevented.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold only in a neat metal box convenient for the vest pocket and cost 50 cents. C. H. Gunn & Co. have seen so many cures made by Mi-o-na stomach tablets that they give a guarantee with every box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction.

The promises made under the influence of enthusiasm are forgotten almost without an effort to fulfill them.
