

MAYOR HELD RECEPTION.

FOR MINOR OFFENDERS AT POLICE COURT THIS MORNING.

Bethel Lodger and Chicago Man Fined—A County Case Stands That Witnesses May Be Called.

Mayor Stewart officiated at the Police Court this morning, in place of Magistrate Jelfs, who is moving up from the Bench to-day.

John Graham, Bethel, and John Lee, Chicago, were charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Constable McKay said they were creating a disturbance on King William street and he had to call upon the firemen for assistance when waiting for the patrol wagon. They had nothing to say under oath, and the Mayor assessed them $3 each.

Martin Tossian, 102 Princess street, pleaded guilty to allowing two sheep to run at large and after promising to keep them in an enclosure was allowed to go. William Yates, contractor, admitted he occupied over one-half of the road with building material, but was given a chance to get his stuff into a smaller space.

Albert Connell, West Flamboro' Village, was charged by William L. Robbins, of the same place, with willfully damaging the doors and windows of his house. The Mayor stated he could not try the case, and Geo. Nipoll hunted up C. G. Booker and Wm. G. Moore, J. P.s. The complainant stated that Connell was in the habit of annoying him by throwing apples through his windows and that on Friday night he pulled his door open and broke it. He neglected to bring any witnesses as to the damage, and the case was adjourned till Wednesday to give him a chance to get his wife and son here.

DUNDAS PARK IMPROVEMENTS.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE WILL CONTINUE ITS GOOD WORK.

May Give Fireworks and Band Concert After the Sham Battle of Thanksgiving Day.

Dundas, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—The Citizens' Committee met last night to wind up several affairs in connection with the summer work. S. J. Lennard presided. The accounts in connection with the building of the grand stand were finally passed, and, fortunately, the funds are sufficient to meet all indebtedness. It was decided to ask Col. Grayson to allow the use of the historic log cabin until winter. It is intended to erect the same in the park, and to make it a very interesting and useful building. If Thanksgiving Day is held early enough it is likely that a concert with fireworks will be held at the park that night, following the athletic fight here, and a committee will be appointed for this purpose at the annual meeting.

Secretary E. A. L. Clarke, on behalf of the President of the Rugby Club, requested that a light be provided for Rugby practice at the park, and the committee decided to install a new light in front of the grand stand for use of clubs and concert purposes, and to have two gas heaters placed in the dressing rooms. The committee will, at its annual meeting, ask to have its title changed to the "Dundas Parks Improvement Association." The cipher path will be continued to the grand stand, and the entrance to the park improved, if the Council approves. The annual meeting will be held on Thursday, Sept. 19, in the Town Hall. A band stand is one of the many projects outlined for next season, and the committee has been considering a portable stand. A letter was read from the Assistant Superintendent of the Board of Parks Commissioners in Minneapolis, in which city much time and money have been spent in park improvement, enclosing plans and views of portable stands used in that city.

The band concert announced for last evening did not materialize, and many young people were considerably disappointed.

W. J. McKicking, of the Deseronto Tribune, is in town visiting his mother and taking a few days' holiday.

Rev. Father Madden, a former curate of St. Augustine, now stationed in Fergus, has been calling on old friends in town.

Ben Rubenstein, who was so severely assaulted by Abraham Shooks, is still in a very serious condition. Shooks will be tried.

A "KNOCKER" Found in Many Tables.

People with "slugs" themselves with coffee and then hunt around for medicine to cure them of the trouble coffee produces, but they keep on drinking coffee and making new trouble right along. That is, some people do. There are thoughtful people, however, and their number is increasing every month, who prefer good, sturdy health to sickness, and they leave off coffee because it contains a drug—caffeine—that produces disease.

Many people have to learn by hard knocks that this is true, and they get the knocks all right if they stick to coffee. A S. C. woman says: "For two years or more before leaving off coffee and beginning the use of Postum Food Coffee, my health became very much impaired, as I discovered afterward, from coffee drinking."

"I suffered from shortness of breath, pains about the heart, and the slightest exercise completely exhausted me. My digestion was bad and gas would form in the stomach rendering me wretched, and my life a burden. Medicine did not help me a bit. I was at the point of giving up in despair when my attention was attracted to the statement that coffee caused some of the symptoms that I had. I determined to abandon it and try Postum Food Coffee."

"I had the Postum well made and the result during the past twelve months has been something wonderful. All of the old troubles left. I have been in excellent health, and my friends all notice it and speak of it. I never lose an opportunity of telling them that the change in my health was caused by leaving off coffee and taking on the liquid food, Postum."

"No argument from any source could convince me to the contrary of what I have found out. I have seen much the same results in my sister's family and among other acquaintances." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Well-Being," in pkgs.

FINCH BROS.

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

"We are carrying out our plan of giving this city all-star vaudeville, and it is proving both interesting to the theatre-going public and remunerative to us," said Manager Driscoll, of Bennett's, this morning. "Day after day and evening after evening we are having crowded houses, whilst the inquiry for seats in advance is brisk and assures us that we are sure of good business for two weeks." May Duryea and William Mortimer, in their sketch, "The Imposter," have made a hit that is likely to be a high-water mark for a long time for humorous playlets. Carroll Johnson and his bunch of jovial pickaninnies in "In Louisiana" appeal to everyone that sees them, and the sketch goes with a romp and a snap to the accompaniment of merry dances and crisp music. Florence Saunders, the beautiful songstress, with her handsome costumes, has won many hearts. The rest of the bill is pronounced as beautifully balanced and the limit of refinement.

Next week a very strong bill will be put on. Besides Rose Coghlan, in a powerful, heart-stirring play, "The Higher Law," Patsy Doyle, the Irish comedian, and Mlle. Carlotin, the only woman keeping the hoop on a bicycle. Manager Driscoll has been able to announce Bernier and Steele, singers, and Foster and his dog, both very interesting acts. Four more acts, all with established reputations for excellence, will complete the show.

Forbes Robertson III.

London, Sept. 13.—Forbes Robertson, the actor, is seriously ill at his English summer home, and may have to cancel his American tour. He is suffering from overwork. His wife, formerly Gertrude Elliott, Maxine Elliott's sister, is constantly at his side.

Another Vaudevillean. New York, Sept. 13.—Harry Von Tilzer, song writer, song publisher and ubiquitous, is about to enter vaudeville. He has been there before, of course, but that was in the old, old days when he didn't care if his waistcoat was cut with three button-holes or three dozen, or whether, for that matter, he wore a waistcoat at all.

William Hammerstein has prevailed upon Von Tilzer to accept several hundred dollars for a week's so-called work at the Victoria Theatre. The labor will consist of singing several songs of his own composition twice a day. The debut will take place Sept. 20.

At the Savoy. Topping next week's bill at the Savoy will be Woodward's Seals, said to be the finest animal act of the kind on the stage and one of "vaudeville's" most sought after attractions. There are many seal acts in variety, and to meet with such success as Woodward's seals have the act must necessarily be some far out of the ordinary. The act was featured for a long run at the New York Hippodrome, and was one of the most successful of the season in London music halls, and the press of this country has given her many flattering notices. The remainder of the bill will include the best that "advanced vaudeville" offers, and may be relied upon to maintain the standard already established. A brisk advance sale for both Saturday performances indicates big business.

Big Show To-morrow. The title of C. Herbert Kerr's musical operatic drama, with dainty Grace Cameron as the star, is "Little Dolls Dimples." The story of this merry comedy, which by the way is now in its second year, is told in about New York City. In the first act Miss Cameron is seen as a street waif. She wanders away to Paris, receives an education through a good friend who discovers that she is a great singer, and presents herself to one of the leading managers in Paris, who stars her in his opera; and while playing some of the smaller towns the company gets stranded. She returns to Paris and secures a position as French maid in order to return to America, her old home, which she left in despair six years before. On her arrival there she is introduced to many of her old friends of former years, but none of them seem to recognize her as the former waif, Dolly Dimples. In time she makes known to her old friend, Robert Lorraine, her visit to Paris, etc. This knowledge puts him out to a scheme whereby he secures for the money and property left to her many years before by the death of her uncle; and in the second act of the play she, as the witch, forces a confession from Mayme Green and Alexander Comstock, a lawyer, that they had robbed her of the estate by false representations, and before she finishes with them store is the delight of all shoppers, and the business is going ahead rapidly, but Saturday they expect to make a record in the new store. A great harvest of low prices are advertised, which is bound to make lively and big selling right from opening time. A great half-price sale of plain and fancy silk ribbons, in all widths, from 15c ribbon at 5c up, all laid out for quick selling and easy choosing. Sale of grey and white flannelette blankets, for early fall and winter use, in 11-4 and 12-4 sizes, at $1 and $1.25, less than the wholesale price. Sale of all wool Scotch blankets at $3.49. Women's $1.25 flannelette gowns, at 75c; misses' cambric skirts, at 50c; women's linen handkerchiefs at 2 for 15c; women's long kid gloves, in Perrin's famous makes, at $2.19. Sale of women's two dome lisle gloves, 50c at 19c, and long mousquetaire gloves, in black, some slightly damaged, at 19c, and white at 39c; extra long white and black silk gloves, $1, Saturday at 59c; women's all wool cashmere hosiery, in plain and ribb makes, at 25c, and end of season clearing in wash goods up to 40c for 15c; $1 new wool tweed suitings at 75c; handsome Dresden silks that were $1.25, at 40c; black silk taffeta, marked 85c, selling at 40c; black all wool armure cloth $1 quality at 30c. Finch Bros' large and bright second floor welcomes every shopper with great savings in these departments. Women's $2.50 cravenette dress coats at $1.49; women's 75c cambric dressing sacques at 39c; women's $1.50 alpaca blouses at 98c. A great list of money savings in everything for present wants, which should include a new Saturday shopper, and the new store of Finch Bros. is one of the most popular, convenient and attractive shopping places in our city. Open at 8.30 a. m., close at 10 o'clock and is specially attractive in the evening.

Successful Meeting Held at Sroney Creek Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon the monthly meeting of the Sroney Creek Women's Institute, was held at the rectory, through the kindness of Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Beaumont, President, was in the chair. Miss Clara Walker, Secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, also the correspondence regarding the meeting with the Burlington Women's Institute. Sroney Creek and Burlington Institutes will visit Burlington next Thursday, the 19th, leaving Hamilton by 1.10 Radial car. Mrs. Beaumont announced that she hoped to secure a new dress, on the 11 G. & B. and Radial roads. The Burlington Institute will provide the programme.

Miss King played a piano solo and Miss Myrtle Lee gave a humorous reading.

Mrs. Davis read a thoughtful paper on "Religion in the Home."

Mrs. Fessenden gave an interesting and instructive history of the British flag, illustrated with a series of charts. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Fessenden. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

BRAVE CHIEF CLARK. Fire Chief Clark, of the London Fire Department, formerly a fireman on the Hamilton department, and Fireman Dan McDonald have been awarded bronze medals by the Humane Society for bravery shown in the rescue of the late James Angus from a burning building on Richmond street in May last. They are to be presented to the plucky men some day next week.

they are glad to turn the entire estate over to her without any trouble.

Supporting Miss Cameron are such well-known artists as Mr. Al. Lawrence, Florence Langdon Tempest, Irving Newhoff, Phoebe Cardovino, Mr. Julian Reed, Daisy King, the famous Alvin City Quartette. The Grand should be crowded to-morrow afternoon and evening, when Miss Cameron and her clever company appear here. Seats are now on sale.

"The Top o' th' World."

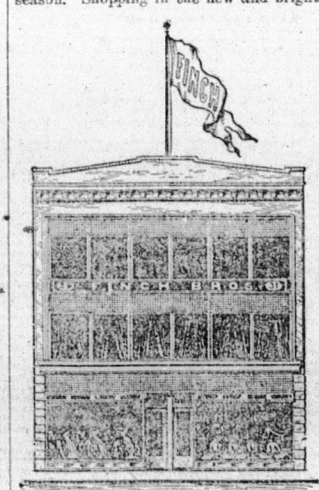

"The Top o' th' World," by Mark E. Swan, James O'Brien, Maude Kiehn and Anna Caldwell, will be presented at the Grand Opera House for one night, next Tuesday. This ambitious American extravaganza is a Shubert production, and is a masterpiece of the usual standard of that management's offerings. A stunning chorus of fifty makes a dazzling display of personal publicititude that outshines any beauty offering of the past. "The Top o' th' World" is a merry show, full of life, color and go, and it is said to be a sure cure for the blues. The sale of seats opens on Saturday.

"Cupid at Vassar."

Jules Murry's new college girls' play, "Cupid at Vassar," is the story of an American girl who is made to believe that her lover has been false to her, and who, out of spite, tries to mend her heart by reading him and becomes engaged to the "innocent man in all the world," sometimes known as Cupid, gets in his true work and saves the day. It is a play pulsing with vigorous human life and portrays thoroughly novel and modern situation with intense interest, going unflinchingly from one climax to another. The production comes to the Grand on Monday night. The life at Vassar, and the wheels within wheels of this highly interesting educational centre, has never been so graphically revealed as in this first attempt to put a college play for girls upon the stage. The sale of seats opened to-day.
