The day has about arrived when the prospector up on the rim of the Canadian Arctic may incline an eye Southward to note the approach of the aeroplane coach, the mail plane, or the broad-winged freighter.

A Liberal M. P. took four hours to show that the Canadian Merchant Marine is not paying which reminds us of John Morley's description of a certain speech as a train of forty coaches with one passenger.

Sir Alfred Tristram Lawrence, judge of the High Court of Justice since 1904, has been appointed Lord Chief Justice of England in succession to the Earl of Reading, who is now Viceroy of India.

His Lordship, Bishop L. J. O'Leary, and Rev. Maurice MacDonald returned Saturday night from Montreal. His Lordship, who went away for special medical consultation and treatment, is pleased to report, returns in excellent health.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to remove the duty on lumber imported from Canada was introduced in the New York Legislature on the 12th by Senator L. W. H. Gibbs, Republican, of Erie. It was referred to a committee.

We acknowledge the receipt of a beautiful calendar, design "Delawana," from the well known manufacturers of the household remedy, Minard's Lintiment. This celebrated medicine for all family ills has an immense sale in all parts of the Dominion and Newfoundland, and its merits are such that every family should have a bottle handy in case of sudden sickness.

"I am looking forward to returning to Canada, and renewing my many pleasant acquaintances made there during my tour through Canada. I expect to visit the ranch at High River, Alberta," said the Prince of Wales to A. B. Calder, who was summoned to Buckingham Palace for an interview with the Prince. Mr. Calder later chatted with members of the staff who accompanied the Prince on his Canadian tour, including Sir Lionel Halsey and Sir Godfrey Thomas.

Shipments of Canadian wheat and flour, sold to American dealers, are being rushed across the border in an endeavor to avoid the heavy duty that will follow in the event of the Fordney Tariff Bill becoming law in the United States, local railway officials stated in Winnipeg. On Monday evening a special Canadian National train left for the south and crossed the border before daylight. This was made up of scattered shipments that shippers requested to be rushed as soon as possible.

Noticing a farmhouse on fire and a child's face at the window, Engineer John Nelson, hauling a train from Cochrane to O'Brien, on the Transcontinental Railway, stopped his engine, and after whistling for the brakeman to protect his train in the rear, started across the fields with his fireman to the rescue. Arriving there the child jumped from an upstairs window into the arms of the fireman. The youngster indicated as plainly as possible in his broken English that his mother was inside the burning house. The men made a scaffolding of fence rails and with much difficulty got the woman out safely. She had been ill in bed.

Quick thinking, followed by quick action, on the part of fireman Fetterly, of the Canadian National Railways, saved an Indian trapper from being carried over the falls immediately below the railway bridge east of Kanuakasing recently. Fetterly, from his engine, saw the Indian, with a heavy pack-sack on his shoulder, struggling to cross the river on floating cakes of ice, and being carried toward the falls. Cutting 25 feet of ball rope from the engine, Fetterly leaped to the ground, ran to the middle of the bridge and lassoed the Indian just in time to save him from death. With the assistance of a section hand, he hauled the Indian to the bridge. As a reward, the fireman was given a black fox skin, which he sold for $480.

Miners Strike Averted

London, April 15.—Great Britain will not suffer a strike of railway men and transport workers tonight, as was scheduled. J. H. Thomas, M. P., General Secretary of the National Union of Railways and one of the leading members of the executive of the Triple Alliance of Railwaymen, Transport Workers and Miners, announced shortly before four o'clock this afternoon that the sympathy strike had been called off. Mr. Thomas made it clear that this was not a mere postponement of the strike as was the case on Tuesday last, as far as the railwaymen and transport workers are concerned. The strike is cancelled. The sensational split in the ranks of the powerful Triple Alliance of Labor this afternoon today changed the complexion of the blackest industrial crisis Great Britain had ever faced. Events developed with such sudden and startling changes as to leave the public in a maze. The reason for this action by the Railway and Transport Unions, which with the Miners Union make up the Triple Alliance, was quickly developed. It appeared that the conferences throughout the day among the members of the Alliance had developed a heated controversy revolving about the peace proposals made by Frank Hodges last night. The miners condemned these with the assertion that Secretary Hodges had conceded too much in offering to discuss the question of wages with out raising indemnity, the controversial issue of a national pool, while the railroad men and the transport workers declared the proposition was reasonable and that the miners should renew their negotiations. The miners remained obdurate and the open breach resulted. The mine owners made public the following statement: "We want and again invite the miners' representatives to sit down with us, both national and in districts to see what may be done to improve the wage reduction under present conditions. We are ready to sacrifice all claims and returns on the industry and will be content with a monthly review of the situation until circumstances improve. Government control has left the industry bankrupt. We will do our best to make better terms for underpaid workers and publicly extend this invitation to the miners to meet us and talk things over. What else can the owners do?"
