Lords Endorse Insurance Bill.

Special Evening Telegram.
LONDON, To-Day.
Lloyd George's National Insurance Bill passed its second reading in the House of Lords without a division. The Marquis of Lansdowne said the choice lay between the Bill with all its defects and two or three years of distracting controversy between the two houses. He had come to the conclusion that the acceptance of the Bill was the wiser course.

Ne Temere Decree.

Special to Evening Telegram.
OTTAWA, To-Day.
Amongst the many important matters dealt with by the Archbishop of Rupert's Land in his Advent Pastoral Letter to the Anglican clergy of the Dominion is the question of the Ne Temere Decree. The Archbishop says they could not pass silently over the recent papal utterance which, although it purports to be merely a domestic regulation of the Roman Catholic Church, has been used by Roman Catholic priests in such a way as to imperil the sanctity and security of home life.

Entombed Miners.

Editor Evening Telegram.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 12.
Four miners were found alive in the Mountain Mine. It is now believed more entombed men may be found alive.

Here and There.

REMOVAL NOTICE.—Dr. Murphy has removed his offices to 160 Duckworth Street.—dec22,11

TOURNAMENT POSTPONED.—The C. C. C. billiard tournament, to be held in the band room, and which was to have taken place to-night, has been postponed owing to the death of Lieut. Col. Greene.

SUMMONED FOR COASTING.—Const. T. Stamp has summoned a number of young men and women, with several boys, for coasting over the King's Pinch at night. He has also hailed to court a teamster for driving without bells on his harness.

CONCRETING AT NIGHT.—The many persons passing that way last night were surprised to find Messrs. Murphy, Coody and Whittle, masons with Contractor Ellis, busily engaged putting down a concrete sidewalk opposite the new Seamen's Institute on Water Street.

USES A "FERRO".—Mr. A. Martin who has been catching so much fish on the local grounds lately, had his boat equipped with FERRO ENGINE, and his only regret is that he did not have a FERRO in his boat years ago. Mr. Martin says the Engine will work as well in winter as summer, and that he cannot sound the praises of FERRO too highly.

DESSERT SENT TO RUOY EVAH.—You are too busy at this season to waste time over these words, but it says and means "Have your clothes pressed" for Christmas, and all you have to do is to phone 574 or send a postal and we will do the necessary. No trouble or worry to you, we call for and deliver your garments looking as good as new. Do it now. Send to SPURRELL BROS., 365 Water Street, next door to Parker & Monroes. Phone 574.—dec13,11

"THE WORKMAN".—Amongst the Christmas periodicals this season is a neatly illustrated and very readable little brochure entitled "The Workman," which has been published by Mr. James Nichols, of the Telegram office. Articles of special interest to organized labor fill its columns, with pictures of President McGrath of the L.S.P.U. and Mr. Wm. Courtenay, one of its principal organizers. An excellent poem by Dan Carroll adds to literary contents, and a large and ready sale should be the portion of "The Workman."

Advantages of Gas.

But the advantages of gas over the old-fashioned way of conducting domestic affairs is by no means confined to cooking. If instead of gently pulling that magic chain, which turns on the bright incandescent light, one had first to have ordered and taken in oil, polished the pedestal of the oil lamp, cleaned the glass chimney, trimmed the wicks, filled the bowl with oil, one might cry out about the difficulty of doing the day's work, and the dreadful dearth of really reliable domestic servants. Geyers in a bathroom avoid all the disappointment of finding that the water is only tepid instead of being boiling hot, because the kitchen fire has been allowed to burn low. The cooking gas fire is over. With a greaser all the trouble of stoking and building up the fire, and keeping it at a certain height are unnecessary, one strike of the match applied to the burners is absolutely all that is needed for the attainment of a hot bath, and the water heats with great rapidity. Where there are young children, it is often of untold importance to have ready to hand the means of giving a hot bath in case of sudden illness; so this is another point in favour of substituting gas for the old method of heating, cooking &c. During the winter months gas fire also play a prominent part in lessening the labours of the housewife. It is satisfactory, after having been out for some hours to be able, on returning home, to get all the benefit of a cheerful fire in an incredibly short space of time, without waiting in the cold wood splitters, and the coal frequently refuses to kindle. When unexpected visitors arrive, it is so easy, whilst discussing the cheering cup, to set a match to the gas fire in the drawing room, and the temperature of that apartment having risen to a desirable height, the evening can be pleasantly passed in the enjoyment of music, for it is here that the piano usually finds a home.

By using the gas ring at the top of the cooker, a plentiful supply of hot water can be obtained for washing dishes, dusting and cloths; further, by obtaining flexible piping, the ever-useful gas-heated iron is at your service. But it may be urged, is not all this gas rather an expensive item? Properly used, most decidedly No! for, without its aid, assistance in the household would in many cases, be absolutely indispensable.

In conclusion, it must be said that to abstain from the use of what is such an important factor in the righting of domestic drudgery is, to say the least of it, being a penny wise and a pound foolish.

ASLEEP IN COVE.—Last night Officers Bussey and Fitzgerald found a man under the influence of drink asleep in Steer's Cove, down near the breakwater. The officers took him to the station. It was well they did so, or he might have gone overboard and been drowned.

Housing Problem.

Laborer Asks Some Questions.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—One of the evening newspapers on Saturday last, commenting on the Bowring Park and the Housing Problem, says it learns that a company has finalized arrangements for the purchase of the strip of land in the neighbourhood of the proposed park opposite Littlefield Academy with the idea of erecting small dwelling houses renting at about $120 to $150 per annum—describing its frontage and so forth—it would make ideal sites for the purpose suggested as they are about to build some thirty houses. Now, sir, I was under the impression, when the idea was first mooted in our midst, it was the intention to get the employers and others interested to erect a certain number of houses, so that their employees would be able to hire them at a small rental—say, from $50 to $70 per annum. All this was brought about through the lack of houses for the labouring man, or those who could pay about that amount yearly; but when the item referred to puts the rental down at $120 to $150, I would like to know what labouring man in St. John's can afford to pay that sum, not including car fares, for our laboring class are practically idle during the greater part of the winter months. Again, the distance is too near town. Why didn't he say somewhere about Topsail Hill! I would like to ask how many laboring men would walk all the way from Waterford Bridge to the centre of the town if they had daily work to perform? The idea to my mind is absurd. Again, it speaks about the Reid Co., extending their street car tracks in that direction; if such was carried out the man who goes to work at 6 and 7 in the morning would have to wait until 8.30 as the cars do not commence to operate before 8 a.m., or else he would have to foot it which would be worse on him than a day's work, and what about the winter months? When and how are they going to reach that distance, the cars are often tied up here in town after a very small fall of snow. Whatever chance the laboring man would have in getting to work from the higher levels, or somewhere about that distance, he certainly would have none from the distance referred to. It is true they go great distances in Canada and the States; but the companies are far better equipped than our car company. I read a few years ago the Reid Co. car or two up from Rawlins Road to the junction of Barter's Road it was for a very short time said it did not pay. Now, in all sincerity how is it going to pay to run them to Waterford? Hoping I have not trespassed much on your valuable space, I remain, yours truly,

Court Adjourned as a Mark
of the Law Society.

As we went to press yesterday,
announced the death of the Hon. D.
Greene, and briefly outlined his ex-treat qualities and the eminence he enjoyed at the bar and in political public life. This morning the Court adjourned as a mark
