Portugal Cove Will Do Honor

TO KENT, DWYER AND RYAN.

From people who arrived in town today from Portugal Cove, we learn that the residents of that place are preparing a big demonstration to take place there to-night on the arrival of the three Liberal standard-bearers on their way back to the city from Bell Island. They will arrive at the Cove this evening and will hold a meeting there to-night, which promises to eclipse any previous Liberal meeting ever held there. The candidates will arrive in town at about 10.30 and the East End Committee will meet them at the King's Bridge, and escort them to the Committee Rooms.

HR. GRACE, To-day. A telegram from this town in today's News claims that 800 people were at a Liberal meeting here on Monday night. That is a down right falsehood as only one hundred and sixty persons, mostly Bay Roberts men, were there, counting some doubtful ones, that were passing in the same direction at the time. That number included undertaker Parsons, Dr. Cron and all the other necessary officials. They, the Government, no doubt had the sympathy of eight hundred people in their death, when so successful a career was before them, but then love for graft could not keep them within bounds. When such bare faced falsehood must be resorted to, to try and boost up a cause it must be rotten indeed. But no person believes them. I challenge contradiction that there were more than one hundred and sixty in that procession. "BOND CANT LOSE!" W. A. MCKAY.

Herbert G. Bastow, M.R.A.M.

Mr. Herbert G. Bastow, M.R.A.M., was Organist and Choirmaster of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Macon, Georgia, for the past four years. Quite recently he had the offer of a splendid post in Laurel, Miss., which he accepted. He is now Organist and Choirmaster of St. John's Episcopal Church, Laurel, Miss. This is a large new church with a new organ and has the wealthiest congregation in Laurel, which is a large lumbering city and one of the wealthiest in the South. His friends in Macon, Georgia, were very sorry to part with Mr. Bastow, as during his stay there he had greatly improved the standard of music in that city, and all assured him of a hearty welcome should he desire to return. Mr. Bastow is one of our esteemed citizens M. A. Bastow.

CAMPBELLTON, To-day.

On Tuesday afternoon the D. P. Ingham was seen approaching Campbellton and the people of the place knowing Sir Robert Bond and colleagues were on board, soon had flags flying to the breeze and on arrival hundreds of people flocked to the wharf to bid them welcome and amidst the roar of musketry and steam whistles, and the cheering of the gathered hundreds they landed. Sir Robert announced a public meeting for 8 o'clock and long before that time the large Orange Hall was packed to overflowing. On arrival of the great Liberal chieftain Sir Robert Bond—Mr. Clift and Mr. Jennings, the audience practically cheered themselves hoarse. The meeting opened and continued for three hours, uninterrupted save for cheers as the several candidates rose to address the audience. At the close of the meeting the cheering for the Liberal Union party was deafening and everyone here has decided that Morris must go "BOND CANT LOSE!"

Halfway held meeting here last night and got wonderful reception. Great enthusiasm. The speaker was applauded continually. Guns firing in all directions. Grabballs is burning with Unionism. The hall rang with cheers for Halfway and the President of F.P.U. and Sir Robert Bond. Gander Bay will cast seven eighth vote for the Liberal Union party candidate, and he left for Victoria Cove this morning. The sound of musketry did duty, while men and women cheered and waved their handkerchiefs in all directions. Grabballs must go for Coaker says Chairman, L. A. FRANCIS.

TWILLINGATE, To-day.

On Tuesday last the public telegraph despatches to the outside, said that Daily News warns voters not to be stampeded by political catch cries, started between now and polling day. We thought the Daily News this warning and we electors will pay strict attention to it, for we know the ingenuity of P. T. McGrath to generate catch cries and then broadcast over the country by wire. Yesterday the public message said James Hare, who shot at Bishop March, is said not to be insane at present and his rash act is attributed to socialism. Is this another of P. T. McGrath's catch cries? We believe that the generator of the "Godless School" catch cry is capable of anything in the shape of catch cries, but we will not be influenced by him. Thanks Daily News.

CLARENDON, To-day.

The Liberal-Union candidate, addressed a crowded meeting here last night in the Orange Hall, George Richards presided. The benefits of Unionism, the waste of public money by the Government, free and compulsory education were dealt with in an able manner. The speech was punctuated many times with great applause. Meeting closed with ringing cheers for Coaker, Grimes and the Liberal Party. This makes the second Warren fort fallen to Liberal Union forces. Warren's supporters now admit defeat.

PLACENTIA, To-day.

Murphy's statements at the Tory meetings in St. John's, that Fox Harbor, Ram's Island and other sections, which had previously been Liberal had gone Tory is a deliberate falsehood. We know Frank here and would not trouble him with his statements only others who do not know him might possibly believe it. It is common talk that some body clapped the tongue on poor Frank's mouth. His taking off his coat means sure defeat for the Tories and it was unfortunate for the Liberals he did the same for them four years ago. Sir Edward must recognize defeat certain or he would not be forced to solicit the aid of outport heilers to bolster up his cause by trying to gull the people of St. John's. The barrel must be of great dimensions. Reliable information from all parts of this District indicates a bigger victory than in 1900 for the Liberals. Tremble, tyrants, tremble, for the "BOND CANT LOSE!"

WESLEYVILLE, To-day.

Wesleyville received President Coaker and his colleagues in king-like style. The reception began on Saturday and was continued on Monday. As Coaker passed from Pool's Island to Newtown and returned yesterday, the candidates visited Pinchard's Island. Pound Cove and Brookfield yesterday. A splendid arena was erected here, one at Pinchard's Island and one at Pound Cove. Hundreds turned out to welcome the visitors on arrival here. The excitement here and at the other places is hard to describe. The mass meeting was held in the new church hall which was crowded to overflowing, many could not secure an entrance. About 600 were present, some came from Cape Cove, Newtown, Pound Cove Fox Cove and Brookfield. Capt. Geo. Bishop presided over the meeting here. John Abbott spoke for forty-five minutes, again surprising the audience by delivering a splendid address. Robert Winsor also delivered a good speech covering 45 minutes. The speaker was warmly applauded. Bach was cheered as they arose to speak and again at the close of their speech. President Coaker spoke for nearly two hours delivering an eloquent address full of fire and vigor which had a wonderful effect upon the audience. He was continually cheered. Scores of non-Union men present were converted to Unionism and are admirers of Coaker to-day.

BRANCH, To-day.

The Liberal candidates, Sullivan, Summers and Cartwright, entered into Branch last evening. Half a mile on the St. Bride's road a large contingent of voters met the candidates and greeted them with volleys of cheers and guns; horses were unharnessed and the people pulled the carriages containing the candidates. The large procession, wound on into Branch, accompanied all the way by cheers and musketry, equally deafening. Women and children were at the windows with smiling faces and waving flags. When the procession halted near Mr. John English's, another assembly was gathered and united their cheers till the hills resounded. Such a magnificent reception was never rendered before to any person in Branch. When the meeting opened at 7.30, with Andrew J. Nash in the chair, the large schoolroom was literally packed, three hundred being present. Sullivan, Summers and Cartwright delivered speeches, scoring the members on the misdeeds of the Government and Godless schools. Such scenes of intense excitement and spontaneous cheering were never witnessed in Branch to this day. The truth of it is testified by the following voters of Branch:

SPANIARD'S BAY, To-day.

Score another victory in Harboe District for the Liberal-Union. The winning team held a very successful meeting here last night, getting a good hearing and making an excellent impression. Mr. Jesse Gosse acted as chairman. Spaniard's Bay has always been regarded as a Tory stronghold, and the Liberal Party has never been able to engineer a meeting there, such gatherings usually breaking up in disorder. Much interest, therefore, centred round last night's affair and the fact that it was entirely uninterrupted speaks volumes for the change that has taken place in this section of the District. It was understood that a Tory riot was being engineered to break up the meeting, but subsequent events led to a great deal of color to the rumor. Gordon did not speak at the meeting, as he had received a message from Harbor Grace that his wife who has been ailing some time was dangerously ill.

SELLING OUT Bargains in Crockeryware. JOHN B. AYRE.

from forty or fifty cowardly Tory heilers who slunk about outside in the vestibule and on the steps of the Hall. There was absolutely no response from the hundreds inside.

The people of the district are highly indignant over the actions of the Tory heilers who have their headquarters at the "Hooligan Temple" in Bay Roberts. They accompany Piccott and his colleagues everywhere knocking up three-fourths of all his audiences.

The ringleader is one "Whitehead," the Bay Roberts mailman, who is ably assisted in his riot-raising by Parsons, the mailman of the Kyle, who got off on the plea of sickness and is feeling for Piccott all the time. Then Martin Sharpe, of motor boat picnic fame, is also to the fore with the "rowdy gang" and an individual known as "Keeffe." Several of them, particularly "Whitehead," took part in the assault on President Coaker in January last. They are toolies who shout because of the hand-outs they have received from the Tories. It is most disgraceful that Government officials should be permitted to take such a rabid partisan part in elections. The account of Nomination Day proceedings in the News and Herald, is a lie manufactured out of whole cloth. At no time was the combined strength of Liberals and Tories present four hundred, not to mention eight hundred; and as to marching, if "six deep" the Tories, led by Piccott, scurried away like a flock of Morris's fabled sheep. Their numbers did not exceed one hundred and forty.

Harbor Grace for Bond and Coaker. They can't lose.
