From the Trenches.

LETTER FROM LIEUT. A. HERBER. SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

Dear Father and Mother— I am back from the trenches, I can't tell you where, nor say much about it at all, save that I have been nine days in heavy fighting, during which my battalion suffered a good deal. I escaped without a scratch by God's mercy. Twice I have been buried by shells bursting within a few feet of me, and several times have had my clothes torn by shrapnel bullets, but not a scratch!
I have lost eleven of my men, but at that came off much better than most other platoons. My men were magnificent, and on the first day they were under fire behaved like seasoned veterans. They have been highly commended by the Colonel.
I cannot write anything but personal news and have only to say that I am well, despite all hardships, and they are many, as you may guess.
I hope all at home are well, and happy, don't worry about me, if it is my fate to come through I'll come out all right, if not I've done my simple duty as I look at it; love to all, and so long for the present
From your affectionate son,
ARTHUR.

Amusements.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.
The popular little theatre in the West End is always well attended, and a good show can always be depended on. To-night there will be an entire change of programme. Don't forget the big of contest at Rossley's East End Theatre to-night. A record show is promised. The treat of the season. Be on time.

CRESCENT BIG WEEK END PROGRAMME.

There is another big week end programme on at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day: "When the Night Call Came"; "Dogs of War"; "The Girl and the Counterfeiter" and "The Sea Gull" are four dramas produced by the leading Film Companies. "Willie's Hair Cut" and "His Last Ride" or "Transforming a Mollycoddle" are two roaring comedies, add to this a good song and first class appropriate music you have a great big show for little money; the admission price is only five cents and the Crescent is always cool, clean and comfortable. The usual extra pictures will be shown at the big Saturday matinee; send the children, the Crescent staff will take good care of them.

A TRIP THROUGH ENGLAND.

Or to be more correct, "A Trip Through Rural England" is the title of a short photo scene which will be shown amongst others at the British Theatre to-night. Although like the proverbial donkey's gallop, i.e., short and sweet, the film is most interesting. Chief among the balance is a splendid comedy entitled: "Rube the Interloper" in which Ruth Roland, the famous comedienne, is very prominent. "The Cop on the Beat" is the story of a good natured police officer who in the course of his daily duty does other noble work. "The Back-Slider" is a drama of intense interest. The rest of the bill, as will be seen from the advertisement, is most attractive.

In the Orange Hall.

The Cochrane Street Church congregation are reminded that next Sunday's services will be held in the Orange Hall, owing to the Methodist College Hall being put in readiness for the examinations commencing on Monday next. This being the Centenary year of Methodism in this city, special preachers have been appointed to review the work of Methodism. Large congregations are expected.

Cape Report.

CAE RACE, To-day.
Wind E. N. E., light, clear, preceded by fog, eight bergs in sight south and east. The S. S. Symra and three unknowns passed west yesterday evening. The S. S. Bellaventure and an unknown steamer passed west at 10 a.m., the tug coast-guard towing a schooner is in sight west of the Cape bound inward. Bar. 29.75; ther. 45.

Grim Duel Fought in Moonlight.

Bologne, June 14.—The story of a duel with bayonets in which both contestants were killed, is told in a Red Cross report from one of the field hospitals.
"Two miles south of the hospital," says the writer, "a French Zouave got separated from his fellows when they retreated after an unsuccessful effort to take a German trench. A German soldier leaped out of the trench and charged the Zouave with bayonet fixed. The Zouave met his foe in like manner and an extraordinary duel took place.
"It was about nine at night and the moon illuminated the grim contest. Round and round the men circled. The contest lasted for nearly five minutes, when suddenly both gave desperate lunges which went home. For a second the opponents each stood transfixed by the other's bayonet. Then they fell dead."

Here and There.

Runaway June—that's all.
PERSONAL.—Miss Muriel Nottall went by the S. S. Stephano on a holiday to her aunt, Mrs. C. M. S. Russell, at Halifax.
