Horse and Driver Laid Low.

While driving on horse back along Rock Street about 9.30 last night, a lad aged 18, had a narrow escape from serious injury. The horse, which was owned by Mr. T.
Neal, was galloping when it suddenly stopped and fell head foremost, breaking one of its fore legs as well as killing itself fearfully about the head.
The animal had to be destroyed. The driver, who was thrown violently to the ground, sustained an ugly wound on the left side besides a badly bruised side, but no bones were broken.
The wonder is that the lad escaped so.
