At the Majestic.

Mr. Carl Trappell sang splendidly when his rendition of "Irishmen All" evoked the most spontaneous admiration and enthusiastic applause. Mr. Trappell has a fine baritone voice which was never heard to greater advantage than last night. To-night the singer will be Miss Marjorie Joliffe, who will appear before the Majestic audience for the first time. The Majestic--the leader of them all--favors the principle of uncovering local talent and in every way providing for its patrons the very best the city can produce. That its patrons appreciate this is proven by the gigantic attendance of the past two weeks. The feature picture this evening is "A Man and His Money," starring Tom Moore, that imitable actor. Two other pictures will also be shown, thus making up a splendid show, one worth seeing.
