The Milk Business

Considerable comment has been caused by an article which appeared in the Telegram on Thursday on MILK. In his criticism of the methods adopted in the procuring, distribution, and in the inspection of milk, the writer spoke plainly and forcibly, and, we may add, he is in a position to speak with authority. In addition to criticizing, he also made several valuable suggestions which would, if adopted, materially help to prevent contamination of this important article of food.

The writer suggests that although milk is submitted to chemical tests from time to time, little if any attention is given to the far more important work of analyzing it to ascertain its bacteria content. This is certainly a matter which calls for early attention. A large quantity of milk is sold over the counter in small shops, and in some cases the methods of storing and distributing it leave much to be desired, nor is it an uncommon sight to see a milkman decant the milk from one receptacle to another on the street, thereby exposing it to the dust laden winds and the poisons arising from the drains and sewers.

Many of the farmers take every precaution in the handling of this commodity, and in their interest as well as in the interest of the public, it is essential that the whole system of distribution and inspection should be revised.

The Repeal of the Income Tax

In referring to the Income Tax yesterday in the Legislative Council, Hon. A. B. Morine stated that it was the intention of the Government not merely to suspend the Act, but to repeal it.

This explanation was given because of the wording of the paragraph in the Speech from the Throne, which had given the impression that the relief promised was only temporary, and that the Act might again be enforced at a later date.

By the few who conformed to the terms of the Act (one speaker has placed the number at 1100), its disappearance from the Statute Book will be hailed with delight, and by the many who either evaded their obligations or were treated as privileged individuals, the repeal will be as balm to their consciences (?). The difficulty experienced in collecting the tax again illustrates the futility of continuing in operation a measure to which public sentiment is antagonistic; and in ringing its death knell the Government have shown that they are acting in conformity with the will of the people of the community.

PEPPYS BEHIND THE SCENES

Feb. 20th.—My wife this day approaches me about the monies which she says I did promise her, and which she would lay out in clothes for Easter. I do not remember the promise yet must give her what little I may afford, albeit I did warn her that she must not wear any of the new short dresses, since I do not think them becoming to a woman of her age. This morning till three in the afternoon I spent abroad doing of many and very considerable businesses. Anon talking to Savill who is but lately come from the South Coast, he tells me how this is like to be the best fishing there these four years past, being that there are some new fish firms operating, and more men engaged in fishing. So to the Legislative Council, where Mr. Gibbs, discoursing on the motion to adopt the Address in Reply, do vigorously attack the Government for all they did and much they did not do. Divers other members speaking to the motion, Mr. Morine did make reply, and explained certain of the legislation to come forward this session. Among other things, talking of the Redistribution Bill, he did say how there would be one representative for every 6,500 of the population, and it is on this basis that the Bill has been prepared. This night being taken with a great ache of my head, do make me think I am sickening with flu, and so to bed, after a hot toddy, which would be the most to my liking if the rum in it were better.

Magistrate's Court

A drunk was fined $1.00 or 3 days, and blacklisted.
 Two labourers of the West End, well known in police circles, were arrested under warrant by the police last night and charged this morning with stealing a part sack of bran, one horse's collar and driver's reins, valued at $15.00, from the stable of the Orange Crush Co. on the 19th inst. The accused confessed. His Honor then addressed the prisoners at some length, and as they were old offenders, sentenced each to a term of three months imprisonment with hard labour.

The Old Shamrock Team

We have recently seen a photograph of the Shamrock Cricket team taken in 1877. The picture shows Thos. Bates, John Maloney, W. Tobin, Alex. Burke, John Bennett, Harry Bennett, J. Kinsella, Wm. Kearney, Wm. Nichols, Jerry Savage, J. Blundon, W. Blake, and P. Blundon, Empire. Of the team only three are alive, viz., Messrs. Bates, Maloney and Savage. The veteran Jerry Savage is hale and hearty to-day, and appears to have aged but little since the picture was taken nearly a half century ago.

CHILD WELFARE

Good Teeth—There are very few people in the world to-day who have and keep a really good set of teeth. How can we have good teeth? We will begin with baby. It is the kind of food he has that first influences his teeth, and therefore never change his food unless a Dr. orders a change. Remember "Breast-Milk is best Milk." Give him a few drops of Cod Oil each day—that will help his teeth. Before baby's teeth come we are so tempted to keep his mouth clean by rubbing a finger round it. It is better to leave this alone—a teaspoon of water to drink will wash out his mouth. We are so apt to hurt the delicate covering of the gums, and sometimes through this cleaning we give baby Thrush.

As soon as the teeth show above the gum give him hard things to suck. This circulates the blood in the gums, and the teeth are nourished by the blood just as the rest of the body. Hard tack is a good thing to give him to rub his gums upon. Don't let him suck his thumb or finger. It alters the shape of his mouth, and teeth become overcrowded when they come through.

Clean his teeth with a little brush from the very beginning, when his first teeth come through. C.W.A.

Impressive Lecture on Trip to the Holy Land.

Rev. Charles Lench, of Brigus, paid a visit to town during the week, and gave a lecture in Coughlan Hall on Tuesday night, Feb. 17th. The subject of the evening being one of paramount interest: "My trip to the Holy Land." A crowded hall greeted the Rev. lecturer, whose ability as such is well known—and who was by no means a stranger to the majority of the audience. Rev. W. R. J. Higgitt, Rector of St. Paul's, occupied the chair, and there was also on the platform Rev. Mr. Harris, Pastor of the Methodist Church. After the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name", had been sung, and prayer offered, Rev. Mr. Harris made some opening remarks, after which the chairman briefly addressed the gathering, expressing much pleasure at being invited by his sister denomination to take the reins on this unique occasion—and forthwith introduced the lecturer, Rev. Charles Lench, Pastor of the Methodist Church, at Brigus.

Soon all present found themselves carried by the power of imagination on a pilgrimage to the Far East—to the land of hallowed memory, which centres around the greatest event the world has ever known—the Birth, Life, Crucifixion and Resurrection of the King of Kings.

Very vividly did the talented speaker depict the scenes—some sacred, impressive; others humorous—as the journey continued, at times over land and then on board ship. The various places of interest, such as the Pyramids, the Sphinx, etc., ancient and historic museum exhibits—among them being King Tut's Chair of Gold, and Pharaoh's Mummy, which were taken in by the visiting company, were commented on and little anecdotes related that had happened by the way. And so Palestine is eventually reached, and as the lecturer recalled the City of Jerusalem, he very impressively sang the hymn "Jerusalem, my happy home".

His listeners could catch something of the thrill experienced by those who were thus privileged to visit what is believed to be the actual spot which marks the "Nativity," and the "green hill far away", as the Hymnists write.

But it was no easy matter for the Rev. Lench to outline the whole trip in the short space of time at his disposal. Yet he succeeded in making the audience conscious of a deeper realism with regard to the incidents narrated in the "Book of Books", which has brought a message of hope and immortality down through the ages.

At the conclusion of the lecture, a vote of thanks to the Rev. Mr. Lench was proposed by Mr. E. Simmons and seconded by Mr. H. Hinton, and accorded by acclamation.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman, was proposed by Mr. R. French, on behalf of the Methodist congregation and seconded by Mr. John Trappnell, J.P., I.S.M., each speaker in turn eulogizing the Rev. Lecturer and the worthy Chairman for the valuable service rendered. This vote was accorded by standing.

Misses Gladys Parsons and Flora Parsons presided at the piano and candy was sold during the interval. The proceeds of the evening amounting to a very fine sum. And with the singing of the National Anthem, the large gathering dispersed, with the feeling that they had heard something instructive, educating and "worth" Rev. Mr. Lench will deliver a similar lecture in Cochrane Street, Lecture Room, St. John's, on Monday next, the 23rd inst.

The death of Mr. Lawrence O'Keefe occurred this morning at his home in the East End. He had been suffering from neuritis for some time past, and was at the hospital in St. John's for treatment during last year, but it did not prove beneficial. He had been a great sufferer in the latter stage of his illness, and the end has come at a comparatively early age in life. Left to mourn his passing are a wife and three children, one son, William and two daughters, Sadie and Susie. Mr. Michael O'Keefe of Bear's Cove is a brother. To the sorrowing family we extend sincere sympathy. The funeral will be held to-morrow and interment made in the R. C. Cemetery.

Cadet Greenham, of the S. Army, St. John's, was here for the week-end and took charge of the services at the Citadel on Sunday. He was stationed here a short while ago and made many friends, who were glad to see him again in town.

Mr. Eric Hinton, who had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hinton, the past week, left by train on Thursday for Howley, on his return to work with the Armstrong-Whitworth Co.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Mann left town on Monday last on a trip to Canada and will be absent about six weeks. They will visit their children at Toronto. Miss Muriel, who is attending college there, and Mr. Fred Mann, who is working in that city. Their many friends wish them a most enjoyable trip.

Mr. Dignon, of Messrs. Sparkes and Bindon, St. John's, has been in town recently in the interests of his firm.

Notes for Women

Crookedness and corruption in our public life let us hope have had their day. The night is over and Newfoundland, bruised and robbed, bravely raises her head to see the sunrise. A long, prosperous, sunny day to her! She is fortunate in the knights who have come to her rescue. Mr. Monroe and Mr. Hickman are men above petty quarrelling, self-seeking and graft. They are only anxious for the welfare of their native land, and when the brains of successful business men are bent upon economic problems the outcome is sure to be sane and beneficial. Both these Leaders favour Woman Suffrage, and rightly so.

The International Woman Suffrage News, speaking of America says: "As a result of the new interest of women in State Government, the Governments of many States are being simplified and made more efficient. It is not so many years ago that a law was passed in England forbidding the custom of using little boys to sweep out chimneys. Hundreds of these small terrified miseries often stolen, brutally treated by master sweeps, were forced to climb and clean the great winding chimneys. It took welfare workers one hundred years to have this law passed. How long would it take in a country where Woman Suffrage is in force?"

The London Daily Mirror in a recent number, has a paragraph headed: "Liberal Party Changes. Wider Scope for Women" and continues: "The chief reform advocated in the interim report of the committee appointed by Mr. Asquith, after the last election, to inquire into the organization of the Liberal Party is the inclusion of more women and young Liberals among the officers and committees of local associations. Among the recommendations are: (a) At least one-third of a local association's officers and executive committee should be women. (b) The National Liberal Federation should co-operate on its executive not fewer than three women and two young Liberals, in addition to those elected under the present procedure. (c) At least 25 chief women organisers should be appointed during this year. (d) All pacts with other parties should be avoided, and all past differences between Liberals should be sunk in real unity. (e) A 'whole-time political officer' of high ability, experience and status, should be appointed at Liberal headquarters."

Brand Whitlock in his book "Abraham Lincoln", quotes the great Statesman as follows: "I go for all sharing the privileges of the Government who assist in bearing its burdens—Consequently I go for admitting all to the right of suffrage who pay taxes or bear arms (by no means excluding females). If elected, I shall consider the whole people my constituents, as well as those that oppose as those that support me. While acting as their representative I shall be governed by their will on all subjects upon which I have the means of knowing what their will is; and upon all others I shall do what my own judgment teaches me will best advance their interests."

The whole history of representative government was never more clearly understood, never more clearly expressed. Even then he had an occult sense of public opinion, knew what the general mind was thinking. Always fundamentally democratic, he was so close to the heart of humanity that intuitively he measured its mighty pulsations, and believed that the public mind was not far from the right. Years afterward, expressing his belief in the people's judgment, as the one authority in affairs, he asked: "Is there any better or equal hope?" In all the English-speaking countries in the world, Newfoundlanders and the Boers are the only ones who have not yet given their women the right to vote.
