Oranges, lemons cheap at Bingham's.

There seems to be a terrible rash among millionaire capitalists of St. Thomas and London just now, to secure control of the franchise for the building and operating of an electric railway from London to St.
Thomas, Aylmer, Port Stanley &c. When it comes to putting up the stuff for the building and equipping of these roads, they won't be half so anxious as they are at present.
It will be many years before there will be an electric road connecting Aylmer and St. Thomas, so for the present we can view the whole matter with perfect indifference.

Our Jaffa correspondent writes: "We are again called upon to record the death of another of our most respected neighbors in the person of Mr. John Leeson, who was rather suddenly called away on Saturday morning last. He was not very well during the past week, and doctor Marlett of Aylmer was called in, and after careful examination, said his liver was a little out of order, but would be around in a few days. The cause of death was the bursting of a small blood vessel, and he passed quietly and peacefully away. Mr. Leeson was highly respected and well known by a large circle of friends, quiet and inoffensive, kind and obliging, upright and honorable in all his dealings. He was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and was really and waiting for the call of the Master. He was born in England and twice married. He lives on son, Charles of Malahide, and one daughter, Mrs. R. E. Bowen, of this place, with whom he lived. Moses Leeson of Aylmer, and Frank of Malahide, are nephews of the deceased. The funeral took place on Monday from the residence of Mr.
R. E. Bowen to the Methodist church.
Rev. Pomeroy and Brown conducted the service. The Pall Bearers were J. Lane, T. M. Arthur, C. Sosak, H. Dennis, G.
Butler and D. J. Teape. The remains were taken to Talbotville for interment.

Among the many false reports regarding the smallpox that have been circulated during the past week, was one that Mr. W.
Woodworth of Glenora was down with the disease. There was no foundation for the report whatever. People should be careful how they repeat any such reports, as it might do a lot of harm to innocent parties.

The Malahide branch of the Reform Association met in the hall here on Saturday last. There was a good attendance and several good addresses. Committees were appointed for each ward, and the following officers were elected for the year: Richard Locker, president; Samuel Staley, vice president; O. L. Westover, sec-treas.

The Rev. Dr. Hannon, of St. Thomas, occupied the pulpit of the Meth church here on Sunday last, and preached educational sermons. It might be truthfully said also that they were edifying sermons, as they were full of thought, and the large audiences were more than pleased with the Dr., and will no doubt be pleased to hear him at any time in the future.

A rare treat is in store for our citizens on Thursday evening next, the 31st instant, when the Rev. C. H. Kimball will deliver his famous lecture on "The great battle of the ages, Gettysburg," in the Baptist church.
Mr. Kimball was a captain in the Northern Army, and took part in this great battle, as well as 27 others during the war, and with his eloquence, and practical knowledge of the affair, and the opportunities he has had since that time to study the campaign in all its points, we have no doubt but what it will be one of the most interesting, pleasing and instructive lectures that has ever been given in Aylmer.

V. S.—in the Mitchell Advocate, who is probably an "aged maiden lady," has the following to say about bachelors, and we wouldn't say but what she is about right.
"If I were a man, which, thank kind fate, I never have been, I should, rather than pose as an old bachelor, be transported far beyond the northern sea. I wish you were before me now, like a crowd of gawky school boys, that I might tell your fortunes, and reduce the doubtful idea of what a brilliant original idea it would be, to gather up the bachelors, old and young, and stand them on poles, as scarecrows, or samples of exalted idleness! Oh! are you not horrid, stale, odious! Of all absurd things on earth, the absurdest, next to our long-eared capering donkey, is a crusty, musty, fusty, rusty old bachelor. See there!"

The weather on Friday night was simply awful, but notwithstanding this fact, a good sized crowd assembled at the rink to take part in the carnival, which Mr. D. Conrad, the popular lessee of the rink, had announced.
There was a good crowd from St. Thomas, and everybody had a good time.

Mr. W. Seburn came into town one day last week, with two of the finest elm logs on his sleigh that we have seen in many a day. They were the second and third cuts of a tree cut on the farm of Squire John McCausland at Luton, and measured over 2000 feet.

There is mourning around the Express office these days, over the unexpected death of Jack, the good-for-nothing, but good natured dog of Master Vincent Fairbanks, which sad event took place one day last week, from an overdose of rough on rats, secured on one of his regular visits to the house of a neighbor, who was trying to relieve the world of a few cats.

Up to the present time, coppers have not been used in general business in Winnipeg, the smallest coin current in business circles being 5 cents, but now there is a growing sentiment in favor of their introduction.
This has been largely brought about by the fact that the man of means can buy his bread 18 leaves for a dollar, but the man who has not a dollar, and wants only a single loaf, has to pay 10 cents for it.

The following is taken from yesterday's Globe, and looks after all as if Swartz was the man who gave the smallpox to Percy instead of the other way as many thought—Guelph, Jan. 21.—(Special)—The young man, Wm. Swartz, who was attending the Ontario Agricultural College creamery course, passed rather a restless night, and the virulence of the disease may not be quite so mild as was at first anticipated. The cause of the infection seems to be as follows:
"Some weeks ago a man came from Detroit and put up at a hotel in St. Thomas, took smallpox and died. A few days before coming to the college Swartz drove in from Aylmer, and put up at this hotel, and must have contracted the disease there."

On Sunday morning last, about six o'clock, Mr. George Parker of Dunboyne, a gentleman who has been a prominent and respected resident of Malahide for many years, died from a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels. He was first taken sick on Saturday morning about 4 o'clock, and was therefore only sick about 25 hours, the disease evidently going to his heart. Mr. Parker was in his 74th year, and the funeral which took place on Tuesday afternoon at the Dunboyne church was largely attended. A beautiful sermon was preached by the Rev.
C. H. Kimball, and the remains of one of Malahide's oldest and best known citizens was laid at rest in the Dunboyne cemetery, where so many others of his old friends had preceded him.

In every well regulated business, printer's ink—judiciously distributed—has a promient place, and the most successful men in all branches of the trade find that the increase or decrease of business depends largely on the quantity and quality of the advertising. It is necessary, however, to have a good thing to talk about before discussing it with the public, but with the generousness of the article assured, the magnitude of the sales depend to a very great extent on the manner in which it is placed before the people. The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company of Brockville, are among the most original advertisers of the day, and as a result their business is rapidly increasing. Their latest publication setting forth the excellence of their preparations, particularly Pink Pills, is very handsome and decidedly unique. The first page of the cover portraits of representatives of four generations of Royalty—Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, and Baby Prince Edward of York, while the last page bears a fac simile of a package of the wonderful blood builder and nerve tonic. A copy of this handsome pamphlet will be mailed free to any of our readers who will send their address (plainly written) on a post card to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mr. R. M. Charlton, who for some time past has been working on a business directory for Aylmer, has the work completed, and will soon have them framed and distributed.
It is a very fine work, and reflects credit upon Mr. Charlton's thoroughness in the matter.

Mr. Jas. Herenden will provide the menu for the I. O. F. lodge at their annual supper Friday, which will be held at the Mero House. This guarantees a good time to all who attend, as no house in Aylmer sets a better table on occasions of this kind.
