LONDON NOTES

Hill Street Baptist Church Notes
Rev. E. M. Wood has returned after a week's visit at his home in Detroit, Mich. He preached a very impressive sermon Mother's Day. The attendance was large.

The Sunday School had a special programme. One of the special features was a recital by Bernice Logan, which was enjoyed very much.

A Musical Festival Tuesday evening, May 30th, at Ulster Hall, under the direction of Madame Hunter.

Mrs. Fred. Kelly, the accompanist. They both have spent much time in musical training and are quite capable of putting on an elaborate programme.

The B.Y.P.U. Services were well attended.

E.M.E. Church Notes, London.

Rev. S. R. Drake paid his annual visit to our Church on Sunday and Monday, the 27th of April and gave two very instructive messages, which all enjoyed.

The Stewardesses Board supper on Tuesday, May 6th was a delightful success.

Mother's Day was fittingly observed on Sunday the 11th by special services in the Church and Sunday School. It being go-to-Sunday-School day, a large number of adults attended the afternoon programme, rendered by the Church School Department.

Rev. F. O. Stewart has been invited to speak at the evening service of the Ridout Methodist Church, Sunday May 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ward are spending a few days in the city with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, of Philip Street.

Mr. F. Budd was called to Hamilton by the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. P. Roy.

Mrs. Nellie Washington is convalescing at Victoria Hospital. Her condition is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Eliza Groat has returned after spending a week in Chatham visiting old friends.

OAKVILLE NOTES

Mrs. Viola Sault was instrumental in putting on a very successful concert in the Community Hall in Bronte on the eve of May the second, for the benefit of the Missionary Society of Turner Chapel A.M.E. Church. An all Hamilton cast put on the program of choruses, trios, solos, monologues and readings, all of which were well received by the large audience.

The Social given at the parsonage by the Stewards-Aid Society was a decided success and was attended by a large number.

All are pleased to see Brother Wm. Atkins able to be out again after being indisposed for some time, and in the absence of Rev. Nelson he preached on Sunday morning.

The Song Service on Sunday evening was heartily enjoyed by all, a good attendance being present, and everyone was delighted to see Mrs. Jackson of Toronto, who sang a beautiful solo.

Rev. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Albert and guests of Miss Martha Adams to dinner on Thursday eve, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams and after dining most sumptuously a pleasant hour was spent.

CHATHAM NOTES

Mr. Samuel Simmons of Windsor spent Sunday with friends.

Rev. J. C. Richards and Mr. Samuel Lynn have returned after a visit to Chicago.

In the School Contest and Innovation of Music, Leona Braxton was winner of the first prize.

Mrs. R. Nolan has returned after attending the funeral of Mrs. Map.

The famous alliance colored quintette will hold an evangelistic campaign in Griffin Theatre May 12 to 18th.

Mr. Archibald Snivaly, of Detroit was a Chatham visitor for a few days.

Mr. Frank Herse spent a Sunday with his family.

On Friday morning Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harding were visited by the Stork, who presented them with a baby girl.

Miss Helen Brooks remains the same in Public General Hospital.

Mrs. Samuel Lynn was quite ill at her home but is improving.

Mr. Louis Pryor has returned to Detroit after spending a few days with his wife and family.
