Amusements.

"A CAVALIER OF FRANCE."

"A Cavalier of France" is an intensely stirring melodrama. It is only sensational in a rational, legitimate way, and it contains one of the most absorbing and exciting stories ever put upon the stage. Its scenes are laid at the court of Henry III. of France, and the period, 1550, is one of the most stirring and picturesque in that reign. Coming just about the time of the Huguenot wars and persecutions, many of the characters are historical and well known through the romances of Alexander Dumas and Stanley J. Weyman: Catherine de Medici, Marguerite of Navarre, Chateaubriand, the confidant and friend of Henri of Navarre, are all seen in the play, which will be presented Saturday matinee and night at the London Opera House by a strong and well-selected company under the direction of Messrs. Shipman.

The man who built the city hall of Denver is now selling cigars and tobacco at a stand in the corridor of the building.

Experiments have been conducted in York with electric vehicles for collecting mail from street boxes. It was found that 15 minutes were saved per trip.

THOUSANDS LIKE HER—Tena McLeod, Seven Bridge, writes: "I owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for curing me of a severe cold that troubled me nearly all last winter." In order to give a quietus to a hacking cough, take a dose of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil three or four times a day, or oftener if the cough spell renders it necessary.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung diseases.
