Letters to the Advertiser THE LICENSE INSPECTORSHIP. To the Editor of The Advertiser: I notice a communication in this norning's Free Press re the license in pectorship, signed "emperance Work r." Is the writer the "disgruntled" office-seeker about whom the Free Press is kicking up such a fuss When id he join the temperance ranks? The onversion of such a champion of the quor cause would indeed be quite ictory for temperance. If, however you read between the lines, you wi! discover that he is still ar

Madame Plehve, widow of the deceased statesman, arrived here this morning. She is broken down, but is calm. She drove to the official residence of the late minister. Friends tried to persuade the widow not to look at the remains of her husband, but she could not resist the impulse The sight of the body caused the widow, who suffers from heart trouble a terrible shock, and she fell to the loor fainting. Doctors revived her and she went to the minister's villa or the islands of the Neva. Later the correspondent of the Asso iated Press learned that while the identity and nationality of the assassing and his accomplices (apparently Finn, but whose name is unknown Taxpayers are hereby notified that the taxes for the year 1904 are due and payable on or before the 31st July, 1904. The Tax Collector will be in his office to receive same during office hours. In order to avail yourselves of the full discount, payment must be made by the time mentioned above. Telegram Announces Demise of a Former Londoner There. A telegram received in the city at a ate hour last night contained the announcement of the death in Montana of Robert Roberton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberton, of 191 Central avenue. The deceased, who was 38 years of age, was well known to many Londoners, having resided here from his childood days until ten years ago, when he went west. He was a carpenter by rade, but since he went to Montana he ad been engaged in mining. He was at one time a member of No. 5 Com-

oany of the Seventh Regiment, and served with it during the Northwest repellion of 1885. He is survived by his parents, four isters and one brother Mr. Frank Roberton, of the local fire department. The telegram received by the family did not give the cause of his death, and particulars have been asked by wire.

The remains may be brought home for nterment.

A Good Servant. At the centenary anniversary Hawthorne's birth in Salem, Dr. Edward Waldo Emerson, of Concord, said, apropos of sympathy and compas-"I used to know an aged man servant whose heart was singularly kind. In him the quality of compass sympathy, of pity, was brought to
