POLICE FORCE INSPECTED

As Fine a Looking Body of Men as Is To Be Found in Canada. The police force was inspected in the armories Tuesday afternoon by Mayor Beattie, Chief Williams and Judge Macbeth. The men have been drilled regularly during the winter, and Tuesday wore their new uniforms for the first time. They made a remarkably fine appearance, and Mayor Beattie complimented them warmly. "You are as fine a looking and as efficient a body of men as can be found any place in the Dominion," he said in addressing them. "London policemen have a reputation for effi-ciency that is known from one end of the country to the other, and criminals keep away from here for that reason. I have been in many places but you are second to none that I have ever seen."

AGED WOMAN WAS FOUND WANDERING AROUND CITY

Peculiar Story Told to the Police Who Are Investigating the Case.

The police are investigating the case of Hannah Dowd, an old woman found wandering about the streets last night without any hat and nearly dead from heart failure. When the woman appeared in court this morning she was so weak that she could not stand, and her breathing was so labored that she had to tell her story brokenly. She stated to the court that her brother had wanted her to sign away her rights to some money, and that when she wouldn't he turned her out, and told her to go to another brothen "Bill," who she said lived on Grey

"I have had heart trouble for some time," she said, "and the doctor says I will not last long." Someone Responsible.

"Somebody must be responsible for that old lady," said Magistrate Love, "and if anybody turned her out they, are criminally responsible. Such treatment would be most brutal. I will send that he is one of the most representa- her to jail and adjourn the case for 9 week so that the police can look into

Miss Dowd stated that for some ways taken a deep interest in all days she had been making her home church work, and has occupied many with a family on Talbot street, but prominent positions. He is a most getting the impression that she was not wanted, she had left. Dr. James D. Wilson stated to The Church, St. Thomas, and has also been Advertiser that the woman is sufferstationed at Wesley Church, Clinton, ing from acute heart trouble, and is

BARONESS ON TRIAL German Army Scandal Again in Court

-Accused Now Frau Weber. Berlin, June 8.—The trial of the former Baroness von Schonbeck, the heroine of the famous Allenstein garrison murder on Christmas Day, 1907. began Monday at Allenstein. The former baroness is now the wife of A. O. Weber, the foremost satirical artist in Berlin. Frau Weber appeared in court dressed completely in black and lean-ing on the arm of Mr. Weber. The proceedings were in camera. On the date mentioned Major von Schonbeck, an artillery officer, was murdered by Capt, von Goben, another army officer, who was the lover of Frau von Schonbeck. The captain, who was arrested, at first maintained his innocence, but later made a complete confession in which he implicat-2:50 p.m., 7:15 p.m. LEAVE PORT ed the baroness in the murder. An hour after making the confession Goben blew his brains out. Proceedings were begun against the baroness, but her counsel set up the plea that she was mentally irresponsible and she was committed to a sanatorium. The Government, it is alleged, was not anxious that the wo-man should be brought to trial because of possible scandals that might arise. For this reason she was al-SEALED TENDERS ADDRESSED TO lowed to leave the sanatorium and last January Berlin was surprised to hear that she had been married in to Weber, who was regarded as confirmed woman hater and who had been twice divorced and once remarried to his first wife, who was a Philadelphia woman.

The murder charge was never drops ped and the baroness is now on trial on the original indictment. LAST RESPECTS PAID TO LATE MRS. BARRON

Stratford, June 8. - The funeral of the late Mrs. A. J. Barron, wife of his Honor Judge Barron, took place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A large number of the most prominent citizens of Stratford turned out to pay the last respects. The county council also adjourned from their regular monthly session until 3:30 so that the different members might attend the funeral. Judges from outside districts werepresent, and a number of the friends of the family from Lindsay. The funeral left the family residence, corner Norman and John streets, at 2:30 p.m., to St. James' Church, where the funeral services were held, and thence proceeded to Avondale Cemetery, where interment took place. Rev. W. T. Cluff, rector of St. James' Church, conducted the funeral services, and Messrs. Wm. Maynard, Jas. O'Loane, Wm. Buckingham, M. Finucane, Mr. Smart and E. Sydney Smith acted as pall-bearers.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternon Miss

Ina Palmer Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davidson, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Herbert Gregory, barrister, of this city. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents, 208 Church street, the ceremony being conducted by the Rev. G. F. Salton, Ph. B., assisted by Rev. E. A. Fear, uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory left on the afternoon train for Detroit, and after their return will take up their home at 293 St. David street, Stratford.
