HOODOO FOLLOWS MAY

Former Wearer of Hope Diamonds Almost Penniless in Seattle.

Seattle Feb 22 - Another chapter has been added to the story of the "hoodoo" that pursues owners or wearers of the famous Hope diamond. May Yohe, who, as Lady Francis Hope, wore it, with other jewels of her husband's family, on the stage, is practically penniless, and is conducting a second-rate lodging house here to support her mother and herself. Her husband, Putnam Bradlee Strong, is in Macao, China, trying to win a competence for his wife. They are still as devoted, Mrs. Strong says, as on the day she left Lord Francis Hope to elope with the captain. She appeared in Seattle a short time ago, and, seeking a real estate agent, told him what she wanted and how much money she could invest. Within a few
