Preston, Feb. 4 .- Galt Terriers with a following of several hundred and fresh from their win over Stratford Friday, invaded Preston tonight with victory on their countenance which was changed to sadness by the locals, who displayed their best form

"Buck" Bowman, veteran of the home team, scored two goals and was in the play at all times. "Eagle-eye" Schmaltz lived up to his reputation as one of the best net guardians in the Big Four. The three goals scored by the visitors were of the impossible variety, and would have beaten the best of them. The terrible Terriers were out to win and gave of their were out to win and gave of their best, but the locals displayed they were a much better team in every department and at times played the visitors off their feet.

Skelly started the scoring for the locals in the first period, and Arnott another shortly afterwards The third goal of the night went to Woods of Galt, while Clark for Preston added another before the Beat Collingwood 14 to 1 in period ended.
