Constantinople, June 5.—The official F announcement of the finding of the final court martial, which tried Fuad Pasha, formerly under secretary of the interior, has been made. Fuad had been found J guilty of revolutionary acts, and sen-tenced to life imprisonment in a fortress, to degradation of rank and to be depriv-ed of his decorations. Fuad Pasha was tvied by court martial in March, but the sentence of this court was not ratified by the Sultan, and the case was referred to another court. From St. George's Gazette. A correspondent from India, some lit-ite time ago, sent us a gutting from The Civil and Military Gazette, published at Iahore, dated as long ago as March 6, 1896.
