The License Commissioners for West Yors met in their little room in the Court House yesterday afternoon and spent nearly four hours in considering the applications which were held over at their meeting a week ago. Only avera applications were considered.

The board firnily decided to grant no shoy licenses in their district, taking the view that licensed shops were an evil and that people who wasted liquor in large quantities could get it in Toronto. There were big protests against shop licenses. These tavern licenses were granted:

John McFayden, Vanghan; Peter Dovle, Vaughan; Gilbert Glinnore, Klemburg; James Morrow, Humber; John Duck, Humber; John Emeler, Woodbridge.

A deputation consisting of Mrs. Edward Blake, Airs. Jarvis and Mrs. Gibson, waited on the board to protest against the granting of any hotel license in the vicinity of the Contractor Lione idea of the received were listed to be made in the erection. It was almost the board to protest against the granting of any hotel licenses at West Toronto. There are seven applications for hotel licenses at West Toronto Junction and by a bylaw only three can be granted. The Board was in doubt as to the wording and intent of the bylaw and decided to grant no Junction licenses till their meeting next week, when the applications of Wim, Brown, York, and Wim. Opinions among the railway officials are divided in regard to the broken axle which was discovered yesterday. One of the officials of the road said to a reporter to-day that the broken axle might have been the cause of the accident, or that the accident might have caused the broken axle.

Mr. W. A. Robinsan, formerly mechanical superintendent of the old Great Western Railway, an expert in the working of iron and steel, was appointed to inspect the track and make an examination of the wreck, including the broken axle. In company with Mr. John Hoodless, foreman of the jury, he went to the scene yesterday afternoon and inspected the axle. He will give his opinion to the jury to-morrow night. Mr. Hoodless is of the opinion that the broken axle was the cause of the accident, and he thinks that Mr. Robinson will give a similar opinion.

Mrs. George Sanders, 72 Market street, this city, thinks that her husband was killed. He went to Loudon last Wednesday to look for work and she has not beard from him since.

Dr. Rodgers, chief medical adviser; Herberts Wallace, chief mechanical superintendent; John Bell, Q.C., solicitor, and A. H. Smith, assituat mechanical superintendent, inspect ed the wreck this morning.

General Manager Hickson left Ottawa this atternoon on his way to this city. He will conduct a rigid investigation.

While the workmen were engaged removing the debris at the scene of the wreckestrain to-day another body was found. This swells the list to twenty killed.
