THE ODDFELLOWS ATTEND CHURCH

Crescent Lodge Observed 102nd Anniversary of Oddfellowship in America Sunday Evening

The officers and members of Crescent Lodge, No. 63, I. O. O. F., attended divine worship in the Gordon-Providence United Church last Sunday evening and listened to a beautiful sermon delivered by Rev. G. W. Miller, pastor of the Wolfville Methodist Church, and a member of the three link fraternity.

The church was filled to its full capacity. The music, which was in charge of the choir leader, Mr. R. J. Messinger, who is also Warden of Crescent Lodge, consisted of a male choir, special vocal solos, quartets, instrumental music, etc. It was certainly greatly appreciated by the large congregation and was a credit to all who took part.

The parade was the history of the lodge, and was in charge of Past Grand N. E. Chute, who had every officer in his correct position, while on the street, and the members formed up in regular marching order.

After service the members returned to the lodge room where they were again addressed by Bro. Miller, followed by appropriate remarks from visiting brethren and members of the local lodge. The whole affair passed off very successfully and was an excellent way to commemorate the 102nd anniversary of the founding of Oddfellowship in America, which took place in the Seven Star Inn, in Baltimore, Md., April 26th, 1819.

THE VALLEY BALL LEAGUE

Windsor and Lawrencetown Are Admitted to Circuit at a Special Meeting of Clubs

MIDDLETON, May 6.—The Valley Baseball League executive met here this afternoon and arranged the schedule of games for the season, and also dealt with the applications of Windsor and Lawrencetown for admission into the league. On motion it was decided to admit the above teams, and to divide the league into two sections, the eastern section including Windsor, Wolfville, Kentville and Berwick and the western section taking in Middleton, Lawrencetown, Bridgetown and Annapolis. Official umpires were appointed as follows:—Dr. A. Boyd Crowe, and Father Mackie, Annapolis; H. T. MacKenzie, Bridgetown; Claude E. Balcorn, Middleton; J. Howe Cox, and Harold C. The two schedules were drawn as follows:

CALLED TO YARMOUTH

The Popular Pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church Sends in Resignation.

Not only the members of the Baptist Church, but the citizens generally will learn with regret that Rev. M. S. Richardson has resigned the pastorate of the Bridgetown Baptist Church after nearly four years' successful work.

He has been called to Zion Church, Yarmouth, to succeed the Rev. A. T. Dykeman, and expects to leave here about the first of July.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Richardson take an active interest, not only in church work, but in everything that is for the good of the community, and the world at large. Mr. Richardson is an enthusiastic Oddfellow and will prove a great assistance to Diamond Lodge, Yarmouth, while Mrs. Richardson's place on the deaconess staff of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, will be hard to fill.

Mr. Richardson is a leader, and his evangelistic work is a power in any town in which he may be engaged. This was demonstrated while on a visit to Bear River a few weeks ago when he assisted the pastor of the Baptist Church in that town during which nearly a hundred people, old and young, attached themselves to the church and through his influence manifested a willingness to promote the good work in our sister town.

Mr. Richardson is not a stranger. He is a native of West Jeddore, Halifax County, was brought up near the sea shore and takes a deep interest in shooting, hunting, and all kinds of clean sport. He will no doubt become a member of the Yarmouth Yacht Club and it so, will also prove a help to that organization. There is no one, among his hundreds of friends, regrets his departure from Bridgetown, more than the Editor, to whom he has been a personal help and a true friend during the past four years.

We congratulate Zion Church on their choice of pastors and we know that Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will soon make a host of friends in their new field of labor.

'ENTIRELY PERSONAL'

Path Of Glory Is Barred Hog-Tight For Man Who Does Not Labor While He Waits

EDITOR'S NOTE—A short, four-square redhead of Kansas, William Allen White was born in Emporia three years after Appleton. He loved the farm, the prairie, and the quiet woods of the west. He loved Kansas as he loved the Republican Party, and to his career as editor of the Emporia Gazette he brought a spark, an eagerness and a vitality which illuminate all his writings. His first editorial as editor of the Gazette, which appeared in that newspaper 51 years ago today when he was 27 years old, is here reprinted under its original title from "The Autobiography of William Allen White," with the permission of the publishers, The Macmillan Company.)

June 3, 1885
To the gentle reader who may, through the coming years during which we are spared to one another, follow the course of this paper, a word of personal address from the new editor of the Gazette is due. In the first place, the new editor hopes to live here until he is the old editor, until some of the visions which rise before him as he dreams shall have come true. He hopes always to sign "from Emporia" after his name when he is abroad, and he trusts that he may so endeavor himself to the people that they will be as proud of the first words of the signature as he is of the last words. He expects to perform all the kind offices of the country editor in this community for a generation to come. It is likely that he will write the wedding notices of the boys and girls in the schools; that he will announce the birth of the children who will some day honor Emporia and that he will say the final words over those of middle age who read these lines.

His relations with the people of this town and country are to be close and personal. He hopes that they may be kindly and just. The new editor of the Gazette is a young man now, full of high purposes and high ideals. But he needs the close touch of older hands. His endeavor will be to make a paper for the best people of the city. But to do that he must have their help. They must counsel with him, be his friends, often show him what their sentiments are. On them rests the responsibility somewhat. The "other fellows" will be around. They will give advice. They will attempt to show what the public sentiment is. They will try to work their schemes, which might dishonor the town. If the best people stay away from the editor's office, if they neglect to stand by the editor, they must not blame him for mistakes. An editor is not all wise. He judges only by what he sees and hears. Public sentiment is the only sentiment that prevails. Good sentiment, so long as it does not assert itself, is only private sentiment. If the good, honest, upright, God-fearing, law-abiding people of any community desire to be reflected in the world, they must see that their private opinion is public opinion. They must stand by the editors who believe as they do.

It is a plain business proposition. The new editor of the Gazette desires to make a clean, honest local paper. He is a Republican and will support Republican nominees first, last, and all the time. There will be no bolting, no snubbing, no "holier than thou" business about his politics—but politics is so little. Not one man in ten cares for politics more than two weeks in a year. In this paper, while the politics will be straight, it will not be obtrusive. It will be confined to the editorial page—where the gentle reader may venture at his peril. The main thing is to have the paper represent the average thought of the best people of Emporia and Lyon County in all their everyday business—to make an honest living and to leave an honest name behind. If the good people care for fair, honest news, that is in the town—here it is. In the meantime, I shall hustle advertising, job work, and subscriptions, and write editorials and "telegrams" twelve hours a day in spite of my ideal. The path of glory is barred hog-tight for the man who does not labor while he waits.

WILLIAM A. WHITE
I was quarreled with his wife. There were slews of detectives working on the case, but it was Blanche Sweet who caught the thief and aided in rescuing the child. After her name is cleared "The Girl in the Web" says Yes to her here, enacted by Nigel Barrie. Others in the cast are Christine Mayo, Adele Farrington, Thomas Jefferson, Hayward and Peaches Jackson.

If a woman hasn't anything else to do she borrows a recipe from her neighbor and attempts to make a cake.

531,633 MORE POUNDS

of "SALADA" TEA were sold in the first three months of this year than in the corresponding period of last year. This is equivalent to an INCREASE of 20 tons a week and a modest estimate of this means that over one hundred million MORE cups of delicious "SALADA" were enjoyed in the homes of the people during these three months than in the same three months of 1920.

This INCREASE confirms the popularity of "SALADA", which was evidenced by the INCREASE of 1,496,236 pounds in "SALADA" sales for 1920 over 1919, and the increase of 1,536,789 pounds in 1919 over 1918.

We publish these figures because we believe everyone is interested in the reward of merit. For 39 years we have been blending and selling an honestly fine quality tea to the public. In all that time "SALADA" has remained matchless in flavour—unapproached by any other tea in cup quality—and as a result has continually increased in sales.

Please remember the above figures represent our INCREASES alone—"SALADA" sales are not only larger than those of any other tea in America, but amount to over

ONE-TENTH OF THE TOTAL IMPORTS OF ALL KINDS OF TEA INTO AMERICA—viz.: Canada and the United States.
