

SECOND PROPOSITION :—(Continued.)

Objections to Company's title, and answers, p. 19.

Company's possession was anterior to Conventions of 1818 and 1827, and Conventions did not exclude, but allowed each party to occupy freely.

Extract from Conventions, Greenhow.

Conventions, admissions of joint occupancy, p. 20.

Rights of Companies protected by principles of equity, and based in public law ; authorities, p. 20.

confirmed and superadded to by Treaty, p. 21.

Second objection to Company's title, that it was limited by the term of the Licenses, rests on an entire misconception of the Licenses, p. 21.

2. Admissions and Confirmations of Company's title in Treaty, p. 22.

Treaty a compromise on unrecognized claims, p. 22.

Nature and Language of Treaty, and effect on Territory South of 49°, p. 22-23.

"British Subjects;" who meant? p. 23.

Evidence of Mr. Lowe as to claims entered by the Company's servants, p. 23.

Right of Company one of ownership, p. 24-25 ;

See Art 4 of Treaty, respecting the P. S. A. Company.

Rights of H. B. Company more difficult of definition, p. 25.

EVIDENCE AS TO EXTENT AND VALUE OF COMPANY'S RIGHTS, p. 26-29 ; 2ND AND 3RD PROPOSITIONS :

General remarks on.

Superiority of Evidence of H. B. Company, p. 26-27.

Prejudice against Company ; Newspapers (F. 22).

Mode of examination of Evidence, p. 28.

Basis of Company's claim ; opinion of Mr. Coxe, p. 28-29.

Facts to be established in evidence, p. 29.

POSTS AND ESTABLISHMENTS, 14 in all, p. 29.

1. VANCOUVER, p. 29.

Valued at £175,000, Buildings £100,000, IV.

Land increased to £160,000 by Motion.